Systems from Hell David A. Rochefort, 2024-12-01 This book approaches contemporary fiction as a medium for policy advocacy one whose narrative devices both link it to and distinguish it from other forms of public discourse Using the framework of political agenda setting David A Rochefort analyzes the rhetorical function of problem definition played by literary works when they document and characterize social issues while sounding the call for systemic reform Focusing on a group of noteworthy realist novels by American authors over the past twenty years this study maintains that fictional narrative is a potentially influential instrument of empathic policy argument The book closes by examining the agenda setting dynamics through which a social problem novel can contribute to the process of policy change
