Indian Cultural Diplomacy Paramjit Sahay, 2019-03-31 The Book is a window on Indian cultural diplomacy which is set against the backdrop of its ethos of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam The World is a Family It is pivoted to the Idea of India that gets manifested through acceptance of diversity and celebration of pluralism The Book in 15 chapters under 8 sections provides a comprehensive picture on the concept of cultural diplomacy its relationship with public diplomacy and soft power its place in the diplomatic architecture and its growing centrality Unlike soft power cultural diplomacy is not in the paradigm of power The Book also provides an in depth study on the origins and evolution of Indian cultural diplomacy over the years It reviews the role of the Ministries of Culture and External Affairs and the Indian Council for Cultural Relations ICCR It examines various instrumentalities such as Cultural Agreements Festivals of India Cultural Centres and Chairs of Indian Studies used by India to achieve its objectives The role played by Education Media and Diaspora as bridge builders is evaluated The Book peeps into global cultural hubs like the Smithsonian Institution in Washington DC and the working of cultural diplomacy at grassroots level at Chandigarh and Chicago Two chapters in the Book look at the operation of cultural diplomacy in the Indian diplomatic missions and foreign diplomatic missions in India This adds a practical dimension to the conceptual framework as seen by practitioners of diplomacy The final chapter provides an overview on the existing reality A section on The Way Ahead makes a number of practical recommendations in five clusters to take cultural diplomacy to a higher plateau Finally it raises a set of pertinent issues and points for consideration by theoreticians and practitioners of cultural diplomacy The Book would serve as a useful reference point for further studies as it fills the existing void in the literature on cultural diplomacy American Grants & Loans Directory, 2005, 2005 Internationalization of Higher Education in East Asia Ka-Ho Mok, Kar Ming Yu, 2013-11-12 The rise in demand for higher education in the Asia Pacific region is an undeniable reflection of the growing pace of globalization and the subsequent pressures imposed by it Aspiring to become globally competitive and to position favourably in the global university league tables governments in Asia have either engaged in a serious quest to become a regional education hub or they have concentrated on developing transnational higher education to create more opportunities in order to meet their citizens pressing demand for higher education Internationalization of Higher Education in East Asia critically examines and provides comparative perspectives on the major strategies that selected Asian countries and societies have adopted to transform their higher education sector and enhance their national competitiveness in the increasingly globalized world. This volume by leading scholars in the field of education development and policy studies makes critical reflections on how Asian governments in particular and universities in general have responded to the growing challenges of globalization by promoting more internationalization, student mobility and entrepreneurship in higher education. This book is an essential collection for policy makers, researchers and postgraduate students studying higher education, Asian education and international education.
