The Smartphone Elizabeth Woyke,2011-05-10 A technology reporter's behind the scenes history of the device that has taken over our lives How have smartphones shaped the way we socialize and interact Who tracks our actions our preferences our movements as recorded by our smartphones These are just some of the questions that Elizabeth Woyke a journalist who has covered the industry for Bloomberg Businessweek Forbes and MIT Technology Review addresses in this book Including photos and an in depth look at the early decades of mobile communication The Smartphone offers not only a step by step account of how smartphones are designed and manufactured but also a bold exploration of the darker side of this massive industry including the exploitation of labor the disposal of electronic waste and the underground networks that hack and smuggle smartphones Featuring interviews with key figures in the development of the smartphone and expert assessments of the industry s main players Apple Google Microsoft and Samsung The Smartphone is the perfect introduction to this most personal of gadgets Your smartphone will never look the same again The author does a good job explaining the relationships among the makers carriers and developers and she delivers an engrossing chapter on design trends Kirkus Reviews

You're Damn Right I'm a Fanboy: MG Siegler on Apple, Google, Startup Culture, and Jackasses on the Internet MG Siegler, 2012-06-07 As we all know by now comments on the Internet are a fascinating thing My favorite involve the word fanboy Generally speaking being a fanboy means you write stories tweets whatever about a certain topic with a positive angle It s meant to be a derogatory term but the truth is that it s so overused that it s almost completely meaningless For the sake of this post though I ll play ball I have a confession to make I m a fanboy Now I didn t say specifically what I m a fanboy of because there have been too many titles bestowed upon me over the years At various points over just the past few months I ve been an Apple fanboy a Google fanboy a Twitter fanboy a Facebook fanboy a Foursquare fanboy a Gowalla fanboy and yes even a Microsoft fanboy Never mind that most of companies compete with one another so it would be hard to be a true fanboy of multiple ones without misrepresenting my fanboydom of a few of the others We ll just say I m a fanboy and leave it at that And that leaves me wondering why wouldn t you want to be a fanboy

Create Your School Library Writing Center Timothy Horan, 2016-10-16 Colleges typically have writing centers to which students can bring their writing assignments to a peer tutor for assistance but most high schools and middle schools do not This book advocates for the creation of writing centers in 7 12 schools and explains why the school library is the best place for the writing center There is a glaring absence of writing centers in today s K 12 schools More and more students are being asked in college entrance testing to submit samples of their writing and employers are expecting their workers to write correctly and clearly This book addresses the critical lack of writing centers below the undergraduate level It demonstrates how middle school and high school librarians can create writing centers in their school libraries explains how to assist students through a one on one writing tutorial method and gives students and teachers the tools for learning and understanding the complex art of writing Author Timothy Horan inventor of the School Library Writing Center establishes why school libraries represent the best and most logical places to create writing centers and why school librarians are the natural choice to direct writing center operations He then takes readers through the process of creating a writing center from original conception up through opening day Additional topics covered include how to publicize and grow your School Library Writing Center maintaining your writing center for efficient operation on a daily basis as well as for years to come how to become an effective writing center director and writing tutor the most current technology that can be used to assist in the writing composition and research process and working with English language learner ELL students within your writing center
