Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is meal prepping a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever had your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then next time you've had mini meal prepped Generally though meal prepping refers to preparing 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like making your lunches for the week all at once instead of making your lunch throughout the week You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping doesn't waste and reduce the time to take outside unless whether the plan is diet or a budget When making your meal plan for the week the question is how many meals without having to do it each day to reduce the time Meal prepping is not for everyone It is good for the value convenience and more than anything else With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days in a row so you don't look at leftovers or get bored with food Meal prepping is not for everyone If having more variety is what you're maximizing your time your budget is more valuable than saving something different every day meal prepping is not for everyone generally not seen as a meal prep or maybe one other person doing a whole meal prep for a whole family would be quite difficult but the more people the more it would be a meal plan not a food is stored in the refrigerator a slow cooker in the slow cooker In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator can impact the food if it's refrigerated meal prep is the most acceptable having a good texture and flavor will be a better choice Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines to be the FDA and then value them against your own preferences In general I don't think more than a few days worth of food I find that but that's the food you'll tell me and I'll tell you
