Gerhart,2021 Revised edition of the authors Fundamentals of human resource management 2020 American Motherhood ,1908 Plays Well with Others Sophie Brickman,2024-08-06 Funny relatable fiction for anyone who thinks they re above the fray but still want to read all about it People Heavenly hilarity for readers Good Housekeeping A whip smart satirical romp through the minefield of modern motherhood in the vein of Where'd You Go, Bernadette and Fleishman Is in Trouble. It takes a village, just not this one. Annie Lewin is at the end of her rope. She's a mother of three young children, her workaholic husband is never around, and the vicious competition for spots in New York City's kindergartens is heating up. A New York Times journalist turned parenting advice columnist for an internet start-up, Annie can't help but judge the insanity of it all, even as she finds herself going to impossible lengths to secure the best spot for her own son. As Annie comes to terms with the infinitesimal odds of success, her intensifying rivalry with hotshot lawyer Belinda Brenner, a deliciously hateful nemesis, what with her perfectly curated bento box lunches and effortless Instagram chic, pushes her to the brink. Of course, this newly raw and unhinged version of Annie is great for the advice column; the more she spins out, the more clicks and comments she gets. But when she commits a ghastly social faux pas that goes viral, she's forced to confront the question: is she really any better than the cutthroat parents she always judged? A shimmering epistolary novel incorporating emails, group texts, advice columns, newspaper profiles, and more, Plays Well with Others is a whip-smart, genuinely funny romp through the minefield of modern motherhood. But beneath its fast-paced satirical veneer, Brickman gives us a fresh, open-hearted, all-too-real take on what it means to be a parent: fierce love, craziness, and all.

Does Anyone Else Feel This Way? Eli Rallo, 2025-10-14. An instant New York Times bestseller. From TikTok star and the author of I Didn't Know I Needed This, Eli Rallo's reflection on the anxiety of transitioning into adulthood, navigating the quarter-life crisis, and realizing you're actually not alone. Does anyone else feel like they're the only one having a quarter-life crisis? As a senior in college, Eli Rallo expected her post-grad years to be filled with certainty that she would finally feel that she was the adult she had long dreamed she'd be, with a cool job, an amazing apartment, fabulous friends, and lots of fun and flirty date nights. Instead, she was met with crippling social anxiety, no idea what direction her career was taking, an inability to stop comparing herself to her peers' picture-perfect lives on social media, and a looming sense that she may never feel certain about her dating life, friendships, career, or even herself. With deep honesty, raw emotions, humor, and relatability, Eli analyzes life in your twenties with a candid and heartfelt approach, asking and answering questions like: How do you manage losing a best friend? How do you know who you are or what you want to do with your life? How do you find time and space for all of your priorities? How do you navigate the choppy waters of the social media world and not fall victim to the comparison game? What happens when the timeline you made for yourself as a child is long in your past? How do you know you're making the right decisions? Even though early adulthood doesn't look just like Sex and the City or Thirteen Going on Thirty the way Eli thought it would, with Does Anyone Else Feel This Way?, Eli shows you that you're not the only one who misses the days when they could swing by the dining hall or just wants to call their mom to make it all go away. With a look at her own misadventures and hard-won life lessons, Eli shares the journey she's been on to find herself as an adult, and the twists and turns she's taken while navigating her own quarter-life crisis.
