program in rural Vermont she leaves behind Brooklyn her job her friends and her husband to pursue it Navigating Briar House and the small white town that surrounds it proves difficult Layla wants to create art for art's sake and resist tokenization but the institution's director keeps encouraging Layla to dig deep into her people's history Still the mental and physical demands of dancing spark a sharp unexpected sense of joy bringing into focus the years she'd distanced herself from her true calling for the sake of her marriage and maintaining the status quo Just as she begins to see her life more clearly she discovers a betrayal that proves the cracks in her marriage were deeper than she ever could have known Then Briar House's dangerously problematic past comes to light And Layla discovers she's pregnant Suddenly dreaming medium sounds a lot more appealing Poignant propulsive and darkly funny Little Movements is a novel about self discovery about what we must endure or let go of in order to realize our dreams
