Black Friday Garrett Yahn, Jordan Tynes, 2012-05-21 Black Friday 11 25 2011 contains photographic and anecdotal documentation as well as critical writing and prose related to performance and intervention based art works executed on Black Friday last year at the Natick Mall outside of Boston On November 25th 2011 we led eleven zealous artists to New England's second largest shopping center We perpetuated our own sets of expectations Both were shaped by our physical contributions to our surroundings The following pages are filled with those contributions by our reactions to fulfilled and failed expectations PARTICIPATING ARTISTS Erik Benjamins Jessica Borusky Leah Craig Alaina Gurdak Taylor McVay Anthony Montuori Miles Pflanz Nina Prader Chris Soldt Joanna Tam Jordan Tynes Garrett Yahn Yoga, Or, Transformation William Joseph Flagg, 1898 The Gospel of Wellness Rina Raphael, 2022-09-20 Next level revelatory Sarah Knight New York Times bestselling author of The Life Changing Magic of Not Giving a F ck Excellent Rina really knows her shit I'm so thankful for this book Jameela Jamil actress and host of I Weigh Journalist Rina Raphael looks at the explosion of the wellness industry how it stems from legitimate complaints how seductive marketing targets hopeful consumers and why women are opening up their wallets like never before Wellness promises women the one thing they desperately desire control Women are pursuing their health like never before Whether it's juicing biohacking clutching crystals or sipping collagen today there is something for everyone as the wellness industry has grown from modest roots into a 4 4 trillion entity and a full blown movement promising health and vitality in the most fashionable package But why suddenly are we all feeling so unwell The truth is that deep within the underbelly of self care hidden beneath layers of clever marketing wellness beckons with a far stronger more seductive message than health alone It promises women the one thing they desperately desire control Vividly told and deeply reported The Gospel of Wellness reveals how this obsession is a direct result of women feeling dismissed mistreated and overburdened Women are told they can manage the chaos ruling their life by following a laid out plan eat right exercise meditate then buy or do all this stuff And while wellness may have sprung from good intentions we are now relentlessly flooded with exploitative offerings questionable ideas and a mounting pressure to stay devoted to the divine doctrine of wellness What happens when the cure becomes as bad as the disease With a critical eye humor and empathy wellness industry journalist Rina Raphael examines how women have been led down a kale covered path promising nothing short of salvation She knows Raphael was once a disciple herself trying everything from clean eating to electric shock workouts until her own awakening to the troubling consequences Balancing the good with the bad The Gospel of Wellness is a clear eyed exploration of what wellness can actually offer us knocking down the false idols and commandments that have taken hold and ultimately showing how we might shape a better future for the movement and for our well being The Celluloid Couch Leslie Y. Rabkin, 1998-10 In this unique filmography Leslie Rabkin delves deeply into film's unconscious producing a valuable reference text concerned with the history of film and its representation of therapy and mental illness

The Celluloid Couch is arranged by decade with the exception of the earliest period The Silent Era from the very beginnings of film to 1920 Each period contains a thoughtful introduction that highlights important films and discusses the intersection of film with history and psychology Rabkin s overview lays bare patterns in film s representation of mental illness and therapy and inquires how contemporary stereotypes of psychiatric patients and institutions have been formed from film Textual examples in the introduction are drawn from magazines and newspapers as well as numerous readings of particularly important films refracted through the lens of a psychologist The alphabetical entries are compact and inclusive containing main titles as well as foreign listings and detailed information such as cast length director producer and a brief synopsis of the film s plot and discussion of the forms of therapy depicted and utilized in the film An efficient resource for the student of film psychology or mass culture The Celluloid Couch makes the huge number of popular films that portray mental illness and therapy accessible
