Modern Movements Among Moslems:

One Century of Vain Missionary Work among Muslims in China Raphael Israeli, 2018-10-23 Christian missionaries in China have been toiling since the 16th century with little success Only after the Opium War were the Western powers which invaded China able to enforce their gunboat policy under which their missionaries could penetrate all parts of China and extend their activities to a larger part of the population which needed welfare assistance and western protection and therefore resorted to evangelization as a way to obtain both However relative to the huge Chinese population and to the optimistic expectations of the missionaries little was achieved on the ground Therefore at some point since the beginning of the 20th century a decision was made by the missionaries to shift their emphasis to the Muslim population of China realizing that unlike the Godless Chinese who had no knowledge nor approach to the Bible the Muslims would be more amenable due to their Holy Book which knew One God and drew from the Judeo Christian tradition many of their narratives The attempt was valiant and lasted for almost a century with many efforts made to extend educational and medical aid to the Muslim population but it also ended in frustration on the whole due to the unexpected tenacity and resistance of the Hui and Uighur Muslims to the missionaries endeavour

Modern Trends in Islamic Theological Discourse in 20th Century Indonesia Fauzan Saleh, 2001-12-01 Aiming to trace the development of Islamic theological discourse in Indonesia from the early 1900s to the end of the 20th century the author focusses on how modernist Muslims have constructed their theological thought throughout the century which in turn reflects their religious understanding in response to the particular demands of their age The theological thought constructed so far signifies a continuum of progress developing from one stage to the next Implicitly this progress also indicates the improvement of Indonesian Muslims understanding of their own religion which may suggest the betterment of their commitment to doctrinal beliefs and religious practices Therefore this study will also examine the ways in which Indonesian Islam noticeably grows more orthodox through these forms of religious commitment Drawing upon an Indonesian term the growth of orthodox Islam is known as the santri cultural expansion which has been characterized by the vertical and horizontal mobility of devout Muslims in political cultural and economic enterprises A discussion of the theological thought underlying that santri cultural expansion is also included

The Islamic State in the Post-Modern World Dr Louis D Hayes, 2014-05-28
The Islamic State in the Post Modern World is a study of the political development of Pakistan. This study consists of three parts. The first addresses the concept of the state as it has evolved historically; the second section focuses on the creation of Pakistan as an experiment in bridging the gulf between the demands of the modern state and the philosophical/spiritual attraction of the Islamic model; and the third part considers international issues from the beginning of the 21st century, especially the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T. Kenney, Ebrahim Moosa, 2013-08-15
This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam. Written by a distinguished team of scholars, it provides broad overviews of the developments, events, people, and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions, traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations. How are medieval ideas, policies, and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances? Investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience, such as gender, fundamentalism, the media, and secularisation. Offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies. Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations, summaries, discussion points, and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision. Additional resources are provided via a companion website.

Hearing Allah's Call Julian Millie, 2017-09-15
Hearing Allah's Call changes the way we think about Islamic communication. In the city of Bandung in Indonesia, sermons are not reserved for mosques and sites for Friday prayers. Muslim speakers are in demand for all kinds of events, from rites of passage to motivational speeches for companies and other organizations. Julian Millie spent fourteen months sitting among listeners at such events, and he provides detailed contextual description of the everyday realities of Muslim listening as well as preaching. In describing the venues, the audience, and preachers, many of whom are women, he reveals tensions between entertainment and traditional expressions of faith and moral rectitude. The sermonizers use jokes, double entendres, and mimicry in their expositions, playing on their audiences' emotions, triggering reactions from critics who accuse them of neglecting listeners' intellects. Millie focused specifically on the listening routines that enliven everyday life for Muslims in all social spaces: imagine the hardworking preachers who make Sunday worship enjoyable for rural as well as urban Americans, and who captivate audiences with skills that attract criticism from more formal interpreters of Islam. The ethnography is rich and full of insightful observations and details. Hearing Allah's Call will appeal to students of the practice of anthropology as well as all those intrigued by contemporary Islam.

Messianic Ideas and Movements in Sunni Islam Yohanan Friedmann, 2022-06-16 Expectation of a redeemer is a widespread phenomenon across many civilizations Classical Islamic traditions maintain that the mahdi will transform our world by making Islam the sole religion and that he will do so in collaboration with Jesus who will return as a Muslim and play a major role in this apocalyptic endeavour While the messianic idea has been most often discussed in relation to Shi i Islam it is highly important in the Sunni branch as well In this groundbreaking work Yohanan Friedmann explores its roots in Sunni Islam and studies four major mahdi claimants Ibn Tumart Sayyid Muhammad Jawnpuri Muhammad Ahmad and Mirza Ghulam Ahmad who made a considerable impact in the regions where they emerged Focusing on their religious thought and relating it to classical Muslim ideas on the apocalypse he examines their movements and considers their achievements failures and legacies including the ways in which they prefigured some radical Islamic groups of modern times Muslims and the New Media Göran Larsson, 2016-04-22 Scholars from an extensive range of academic disciplines have focused on Islam in cyberspace and the media but there are few historical studies that have outlined how Muslim ulama have discussed and debated the introduction and impact of these new media Muslims and the New Media explores how the introduction of the latest information and communication technologies are mirroring changes and developments within society as well as the Middle East s relationship to the West Examining how reformist and conservative Muslim ulama have discussed the printing press photography the broadcasting media radio and television the cinema the telephone and the Internet case studies provide a contextual background to the historical social and cultural situations that have influenced theological discussions focusing on how the ulama have debated the usefulness or dangers of the information and communication media By including both historical and contemporary examples this book exposes historical trajectories as well as different and often contested positions in the Islamic debate about the new media The Making of Martyrdom in Modern Twelver Shi'ism Adel Hashemi, 2022-02-24 In Twelver Shi'a Islam the wait for the return of the Twelfth Imam Muhammad ibn al Hasan al Mahdi at the end of time overshadowed the value of actively seeking martyrdom. However, what is the place of martyrdom in Twelver Shi'ism today? This book shows that the Islamic revolution in Iran resulted in the marriage of Shi'i messianism and extreme political activism, changing the mindset of the Shi'a worldwide. Suddenly, each drop of martyrs' blood brought the return of al Mahdi one step closer, and the Islamic Republic of Iran supposedly became the prelude to the foretold world revolution of al Mahdi. Adel Hashemi traces the unexplored area of Shi'i discourse on martyrdom from the 1979 revolution when the Islamic Republic's leaders cultivated the culture of martyrdom to topple the Shah's regime to the dramatic shift in the understanding of martyrdom today. Also included are the reaction to the Syrian crisis, the region's war with ISIS and other Salafi groups, and the renewed commitment to the defense of shrines. This book shows the striking shifts in the meaning of martyrdom in Shi'ism, revealing the real relevance of the concept to the present-day Muslim world Muslim Reformist Political Thought Sarfraz Khan, 2013-05-13 There are two main trends distinguishable amongst Muslim reformists: revivalists and modernists. This book charts and analyses the main trends of Muslim reformist political thought in Bukhara. It is the first to utilize original sources preserved in Soviet archives that were previously inaccessible to western scholars. The author has translated numerous original documents from Tajiki and Russian into English. This book thus serves as a useful resource for students of Islam, Central Asia, the former Soviet Union, and of law, politics, and philosophy A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2002-08-22 Ira Lapidus' classic history of the origins and evolution of Muslim societies, revised and updated for this second edition, first published in 2002 Lifeworlds of Islam Mohammed A. Bamyeh, 2019 Lifeworlds of Islam shows that Islam has typically operated not in the form of standard dogmas but more often as a compass for practical individual orientations or lifeworlds. Mohammed A. Bamyeh develops a sociology of Islam that maps out how Muslims have employed the faith to foster global networks, public philosophies, and engaged civic lives both historically and in the present Sufism and Jihad in Modern Senegal John Glover, 2007 Examines through the use of Murid oral and written sources the creation of an alternative modernity as an understanding of historical change by Sufi notables and disciples. The Murid order, founded in Senegal in the latter decades of the nineteenth century, grew into a major Sufi order during the colonial period and is now among the most recognizable of the Sufi orders in Africa. Murids have spread the voice of Islam and Africa in concert halls and on the airwaves through pop singers, especially Youssou N Dour, and the image of Shaykh Amadu Bamba M. Back, the founding saint of the order, often used to grace the covers of works concerning Islam, African culture, abolition, and European colonization. In this insightful and revealing study, John Glover explores the manner in which a Muslim society in West Africa actively created a conception of modernity that reflects its own historical awareness and identity. Drawing from Murid written and oral historical sources, Glover carefully considers how the Murid order, at the collective and individual levels, has navigated the intersection of two major historical forces Islam specifically in the contexts of reform and mysticism and European colonization and achieved in the process an understanding of modernity not as an unwilling witness but as an active participant Ultimately Sufism and Jihad in Modern Senegal presents the reader with a new portrait of a society that has used its notion of modernity to adapt and incorporate further historical changes into its identity as an African Sufi order John Glover is Associate Professor of History at the University of Redlands in southern California

Alternative Voices in Muslim Southeast Asia Norshahril Saat, Azhar Ibrahim, 2019-12-17 According to some observers Southeast Asian Islam is undergoing a conservative turn This means voices that champion humanist progressive or moderate ideas are located on the fringes of society Is this assessment accurate for a region that used to be known for promoting the smiling face of Islam Alternative Voices in Muslim Southeast Asia examines the challenges facing progressive voices in Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore today It examines their discourses which delve into how multiculturalism and secularism are the way forward for the diverse societies of these three countries Moreover it analyses the avenues employed by these voices in articulating their views amidst the dominance of state and quasi state religious officials who seek to restrict and discipline them Contributors to the volume include scholars activists and observers some of whom are victims of repression and discrimination While most of the chapters cover developments of the last decade some of them go back to the previous century capturing the emergence of modernist thinkers influenced by parallel movements in the Middle East and the wider region Others respond to recent developments concerning Islam and Muslims in the three countries the Pakatan Harapan coalition victory in the 2018 Malaysian election the re election of Joko Widodo as Indonesia's president in 2019 and recent religious rulings passed in Singapore Readers should come not only to reflect on the struggles faced by this group but also to appreciate the humanist traditions essential for the development of the societies of these countries in the midst of change

The Blackwell Companion to Contemporary Islamic Thought Ibrahim Abu-Rabi', 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Contemporary Islamic Thought reflects the variety of trends voices and opinions in the contemporary Muslim intellectual scene Challenges Western misconceptions about the modern Muslim world in general and the Arab world in particular Consists of 36 important essays written by contemporary Muslim thinkers and scholars Covers issues such as Islamic tradition modernity globalization feminism the West the USA reform and secularism Helps readers to situate Islamic intellectual history in the context of Western intellectual trends

Rethinking Islamic Studies Carl W. Ernst, Richard C. Martin, 2012-11-27 A groundbreaking response to the challenges of interpreting Islamic religion in the post 9 11 and post Orientalist era Rethinking Islamic Studies upends scholarly roadblocks in post Orientalist discourse within contemporary Islamic studies and carves fresh inroads toward a robust new understanding of the discipline one that includes religious studies and other politically infused fields of inquiry Editors Carl W Ernst and Richard C Martin along with a distinguished group of scholars map the trajectory of the study of Islam and offer innovative approaches to the theoretical and methodological frameworks that have traditionally dominated the field In the volume s first section the contributors reexamine the underlying notions of modernity in the East and West and allow for the possibility of multiple and incongruent modernities This opens a discussion of fundamentalism as a manifestation of the tensions of modernity in Muslim cultures The second section addresses the volatile character of Islamic religious identity as expressed in religious and political movements at national and local levels In the third section contributors focus on Muslim communities in Asia and examine the formation of religious models and concepts as they appear in this region This study concludes with an afterword by accomplished Islamic studies scholar Bruce B Lawrence reflecting on the evolution of this post Orientalist approach to Islam and placing the volume within existing and emerging scholarship Rethinking Islamic Studies offers original perspectives for the discipline each utilizing the tools of modern academic inquiry to help illuminate contemporary incarnations of Islam for a growing audience of those invested in a sharper understanding of the Muslim world A Comparative Study of Islamic Finance in Australia and the UK Imran

Lum,2021-09-28 This book provides valuable insights into the practical challenges faced by the nascent Islamic finance industry and compares the Australian experience to developments in the UK It contributes to a greater understanding of how Muslims living as a minority in Australia and the UK negotiate Islamic doctrine in secular societies by focusing on one aspect of this negotiation namely the prohibition of rib There is little debate in the Islamic tradition on the prohibition of rib The differences however lie in the interpretation of rib and the question of how Muslims live in a society that is heavily reliant on interest and conventional banking yet at the same time adhere to Islamic guidelines Through the words of religious leaders Muslim professionals and university students Imran Lum provides real accounts of how Muslims in Australia and the UK practically deal with conventional banking and finance products such as home loans savings accounts and credit cards He also explores Muslim attitudes towards Islamic finance and queries whether religion is the sole determining factor when it comes to its uptake Drawing on his own unique experience as a practitioner responsible for growing an Islamic business in a conventional bank Lum provides a firsthand account of the complexities associated with structuring Islamic finance products that are not only sharia compliant but also competitive in a non Muslim jurisdiction Using uk k bonds as a case study he highlights the tangible and non tangible barriers to product development such as tax and regulatory requirements and the rise of Islamophobia Combining academic and industry experience Lum unpacks the relationship of Islamic finance with Muslim identity construction in the West and how certain modalities of religiosity can lead to an uptake of Islamic finance while others can lead to its rejection
