Merinda Simmons, James A. Crank, 2019-09-05 From the Harlem and Southern Renaissances to postcolonial writing in the Caribbean Race and New Modernisms introduces and critically explores key issues and debates on race and ethnicity in the study of transnational modernism today Topics covered include Key terms and concepts in scholarly discussions of race and ethnicity European modernism and cultural appropriation Modernism colonialism and empire Southern and Harlem Renaissances Social movements and popular cultures in the modernist period Covering writers and artists such as Josephine Baker W E B Du Bois T S Eliot William Faulkner Marcus Garvey douard Glissant Ernest Hemingway Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay and Paul Robeson the book considers the legacy of modernist discussions of race in twenty first century movements such as Black Lives Matter The New Modernist Novel Elizabeth Pender, 2024-09-30 Considers relationships between modernist literature and literary criticism and argues that new modernist fiction can bring with it new modes of reading Considers how close reading may change as the study of modernism changes to include recently recovered fiction Asks what reading meant for selected critics of modernist literature around 1930 and around 1960 Offers readings of three new modernist novels Djuna Barnes's Nightwood John Rodker's Adolphe 1920 and Mina Loy's Insel Considers key cultural moments of the novels composition and reception Extends the questions about reading raised by these novels to Samuel Beckett's Comment c'est How It Is and Jean Rhys's short stories Since the late twentieth century new understandings of modernism have come with new attention to a range of writers Yet if the academic study of modernism took shape around an older narrower selection of writers and works how can its modes of reading be relevant to newly recovered modernist writing This book considers how close reading may change as the subjects of literary study change Elizabeth Pender asks what reading meant for critics of modernist literature around 1930 and around 1960 and then what close reading might look like now for three new modernist novels Djuna Barnes's Nightwood John Rodker's Adolphe 1920 and Mina Loy's Insel tend to resist some of the strategies of reading that helped construct a narrowed modernist canon at mid century such as the pursuit of coherence These novels offer new thinking about the temporality of reading style and the ethics of narration Reading these novels now suggests that other new modernist fiction too may require revisions to vocabularies with which modernist
