Modernism And The Celtic Revival:

Modernism and the Celtic Revival Gregory Castle, 2001-05-21 In Modernism and the Celtic Revival Gregory Castle examines the impact of anthropology on the work of Irish Revivalists such as W B Yeats John M Synge and James Joyce Castle argues that anthropology enabled Irish Revivalists to confront and combat British imperialism even as these Irish writers remained ambivalently dependent on the cultural and political discourses they sought to undermine Castle shows how Irish Modernists employed textual and rhetorical strategies first developed in anthropology to translate reassemble and edit oral and folk cultural material In doing so he claims they confronted and undermined inherited notions of identity which Ireland often a site of ethnographic curiosity throughout the nineteenth century had been subject to Drawing on a wide range of post colonial theory this book should be of interest to scholars in Irish studies post colonial studies and Modernism

Modernism and the Celtic Revival Gregory Castle, 2001 Gregory Castle examines the impact of anthropology on the work of Irish Revivalists such as W B Yeats John M Synge and James Joyce Drawing on a wide range of post colonial theory this book should be of interest to scholars in Irish studies post colonial studies and Modernism Ancestral Recall Aoife Assumpta Hart, 2016-01-06 A comparative modernist study of the connections between Irish and Japanese literature opening up uncharted avenues of cross cultural exchange Yeats, Revival, and the Temporalities of Irish Modernism Gregory Castle, 2024-04-11 Yeats Revival and the Temporalities of Irish Modernism offers a new understanding of a writer whose revivalist commitments are often regarded in terms of nostalgic yearning and dreamy romanticism It counters such conventions by arguing that Yeats s revivalism is an inextricable part of his modernism Gregory Castle provides a new reading of Yeats that is informed by the latest research on the Irish Revival and guided by the phenomenological idea of worldmaking a way of looking at literature as an aesthetic space with its own temporal and spatial norms its own atmosphere generated by language narrative and literary form The dialectical relation between the various worlds created in the work of art generate new ways of accounting for time beyond the limits of historical thinking It is just this worldmaking power that links Yeats s revivalism to his modernism and constructs new grounds for recognizing his life and work Modernism: The Basics Laura Winkiel, 2017-03-16 Modernism The Basics provides an accessible overview of the study of modernism in its global dimensions Examining the key concepts history and varied forms of the field it guides the reader through the major approaches outlining key debates to answer such questions as What is modernism How did modernism begin Has modernism developed differently in different media How is it related to postmodernism and postcolonialism How have politics urbanization and new technologies affected modernism With engaging examples from art literature and historical documents each chapter provides suggestions for further reading histories of relevant movements and clear definitions of key terminology making this an essential guide for anyone approaching the study of modernism for the first time Culture Writing Tim Watson, 2018-01-19 Focusing on the 1950s and early 1960s Culture Writing argues that this period in Britain

the United States France and the Caribbean was characterized by dynamic exchanges between literary writers and anthropologists on both sides of the Atlantic As the British and French empires collapsed and the United States rose to global power in the early Cold War and as intellectuals from the decolonizing world challenged the cultural hegemony of the West some anthropologists began to assess their discipline s complicity with empire and experimented with literary forms and technique Culture Writing shows that the literary turn in anthropology took place earlier than has conventionally been assumed in the 1950s rather than the 1970s and 80s Simultaneously some literary writers reacted to the end of the period of modernist experimentation by turning to ethnographic methods for representing the people and cultural practices of Britain France and the United States bringing anthropology back home There is analysis of literary writers who had a significant professional engagement with anthropology and brought some of its techniques and research questions into literary composition Barbara Pym Britain Ursula Le Guin and Saul Bellow United States douard Glissant Martinique and Michel Leiris France On the side of ethnography the book analyzes works by anthropologists who either explicitly or surreptitiously adopted literary forms for their writing about culture Laura Bohannan United States Michel Leiris and Claude L vi Strauss France and Mary Douglas Britain Culture Writing concludes with an epilogue that shows how the literature anthropology conversation continues into the postcolonial period in the work of Indian author anthropologist Amitav Ghosh and Jamaican author sociologist Erna Brodber
