Modernist Montage The Obscurity Of Vision In Cinema And Literature:

Modernist Montage P. Adams Sitney, 1990 Tracing the history of modernism in cinema this study provides readings of a range of classic films made between 1925 and 1980 by such filmmakers as Carl Dreyer Ingmar Bergman and Robert Bresson It argues that the act of vision and visual experience are problematized in literary modernism Modernist Montage P. Adams Sitney, 1990-03-02 Modernist Montage P. Adams Sitney, 1990 The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition of Ezra Pound, Gertrude Stein and Charles Olson R. Bruce Elder, 2011-08-26 Since the late 1950s Stan Brakhage has been in the forefront of independent filmmaking His body of work some seventy hours is one of the largest of any filmmaker in the history of cinema and one of the most diverse Probably the most widely quoted experimental filmmaker in history his films typify the independent cinema Until now despite well deserved acclaim there has been no comprehensive study of Brakhage's oeuvre The Films of Stan Brakhage in the American Tradition fills this void R Bruce Elder delineates the aesthetic parallels between Brakhage's films and a broad spectrum of American art from the 1920s through the 1960s This book is certain to stir the passions of those interested in artistic critique and interpretation in its broadest terms

Modernism and Its Media Chris Forster, 2021-11-18 From cinema and radio broadcasting to the growth of new communication technologies Modernism and Its Media is the first critical guide to key issues and debates on the changing media contexts of modernist writing Topics covered include Key thinkers including Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno and Marshall McLuhan Modernist film from Eisenstein to the French New Wave cinema Modernism and mass culture The history of modernist media and communication technologies Modernism's legacies for contemporary new media art With case studies covering such topics as the film writings of Joyce Woolf and Eliot popular art and kitsch the Frankfurt School and the rise of the gramophone this is an essential guide for students and scholars researching the relationship between modernism and mass media Doubting Vision Malcolm Turvey, 2008-07-31 The film theories of Jean Epstein Dziga Vertov Bela Balazs and Siegfried Kracauer have long been studied separately from each other In Doubting Vision film scholar Malcolm Turvey argues that their work constitutes a distinct hitherto neglected tradition which he calls revelationism and which differs in important ways from modernism and realism For these four theorists and filmmakers the cinema is an art of mass enlightenment because it escapes the limits of human sight and reveals the true nature of reality Turvey provides a detailed exegesis of this tradition pointing to its sources in Romanticism the philosophy of Henri Bergson modern science and other intellectual currents He also shows how profoundly it has influenced contemporary film theory by examining the work of psychoanalytical semiotic theorists of the 1970s Stanley Cavell the modern day followers of Kracauer and Walter Benjamin and Gilles Deleuze Throughout Turvey offers a trenchant critique of revelationism and its descendants Combining the close analysis of theoretical texts with the philosophical method of conceptual clarification pioneered by the later Wittgenstein he shows how the arguments theorists and filmmakers have made about human vision and the cinema's revelatory powers often traffic in conceptual confusion Having identified and extricated these confusions Turvey builds on the work of Epstein Vertov Balazs and Kracauer as well as contemporary philosophers of film to clarify some legitimate senses in which the cinema is a revelatory art using examples from the films of filmmakers such as Alfred Hitchcock and Jacques Tati Millennium Film Journal ,1992 The Visual Seen and Unseen Ewa Kęłowska-Ławniczak,2004 Asynchronicities Barbara McBane,2007

The Film Anthologies Index Stephen E. Bowles,1994-10 The Film Anthologies Index is a bibliographical resource essential to any person or institution interested in the study of film No publication or database currently indexes the contents of these important anthologies There are over 600 anthologies by both multiple and single authors in English that have been published through 1991 These anthologies contain over 10 000 stand alone pieces that 1 reprint articles from their original source 2 select excerpts from book length publications and 3 include original essays appearing only in a specialized anthology Without The Film Anthologies Index the researcher would have no guide to the valuable contents between the covers of these anthologies Much more than just a guide to the contents of anthologies the main section consists of 6 563 numbered entries that alphabetically list by author the contents of each piece found in the anthologies You could find for example all pieces written by a particular author which have appeared in the anthologies Additionally every author entry refers the user to all the anthologized sources which contain each specific piece For example Robert Warshow s landmark essay on Movie Chronicle The Westerner can be found in 9 different anthologies or that selected essays by Sergei Einstein appear in over 50 separate anthologies Without The Film Anthologies Index there would be no way to systematically locate these buried treasures The final section of The Film Anthologies Index consists of an extensive listing of all film titles individual names specific genres countries periods studios etc as well as all key words and phrases that appear in the titles of the included pieces There are approximately 7000 topics covered in this section The user friendly layout of this reference source makes it both a comprehensive resource for everyone from the casual movie goer who wants a deeper understanding of the medium to the dedicated film scholar who is pursuing material on Hollywood Ambitions Marsha Gordon,Marsha Orgeron,2008 Working with a varied and untraditional cast of characters Wyatt Earp Jack London Clara Bow Gertrude Stein and Ida Lupino author Marsha Orgeron examines the Hollywood ambitions of a fading western legend a successful popular author a poor Brooklyn girl turned flapper icon a self proclaimed avant garde genius and a frustrated actress on her way to becoming a director Investigating their separate involvements with the expanding film industry Orgeron illustrates the implications of film celebrity during the era in which cinema s impact was first felt The aspirations of these individuals demonstrate the unifying role that the American motion picture capital played in shaping cultural notions of reputation success glamour and visibility Through extensive and unprecedented primary research and illuminating analyses of films texts and personal writings each chapter provides new insight into its subject s dealings in the mythic city Hollywood Ambitions affords a unique understanding of the tremendous diversity of the Hollywood experience and its allure in the first
