JL Merrow,2017-06-12 All the world s a stage but life doesn t come with a script Posh boy Tristan Goldsmith has one last summer of freedom before he joins the family firm in New York no more farting around on stage as his father puts it But the classically trained actor can t resist when the Shamwell Amateur Dramatics Society begs him to take a leading role in their production of A Midsummer Night s Dream As an added incentive he ll be giving private acting lessons to a gorgeous local handyman who s been curiously resistant to Tristan s advances As a late diagnosed dyslexic still struggling with literacy Con Izzard s never dared to act before With arrogant yet charming Tristan helping him with his lines he finally has his chance to shine But Con s determined not to start a romance with a man he s convinced only wants a casual fling Tristan's never been one to back down from a challenge especially when he realises his attraction to the tall muscular handyman isn't just physical Just as he thinks he's finally won Con's heart and given his own in return disaster strikes with a slip of the tongue that shatters Con's trust and sends him running for cover This show may be over before the curtains even opened
