Second-Chance Cats Callie Smith Grant, 2020-09-15 There's no feeling quite like that of getting a second chance and a fresh start. When we adopt a homeless cat or that cat decides to adopt us, we're not just giving one of earth's most beautiful and inscrutable creatures a chance at a good life; we're giving ourselves the gift of companionship, solace, and love. And plenty of laughter, too. This heartwarming collection includes more than 30 true contemporary stories told by a variety of writers, including Melody Carlson, Lauraine Snelling, and Kristin Billerbeck. Each feel-good story involves cat rescue, some in a typical way and others in surprising, even miraculous ways. Sometimes the question becomes, Really, who rescued whom? A thoughtful gift for the cat lover in your life. Second Chance Cats is the purrfect companion for cozy nights, lazy weekends, and any time you need a pick-me-up.

Dodging Angels on Saturday Graeme Garrett, 2005 Of many surprising experiences that life has brought, two stand out for me. God and children. Neither turned out to be anything like I had been led to expect. God was big in my family of origin, big enough to lure me into a life of faith. But I hardly knew what I was getting into. Then I married and had two daughters. At the time I thought you had children while you got on with the rest of your life. That idea turned out to be wide off the mark, as well. Parents sometimes ask their children, usually in the light of some misdemeanor, "What have you got to say for yourself?" But that question can as readily be put the other way. After all, we bring our children without consultation into the world. They have to live with the circumstances we create until age and stage give them a choice. This book is an attempt at an answer to the implied questions of the rising generation: Of all possibilities available, why did you choose to live as a believer? And what on earth has that to do with us? The author, an Anglican theologian at St Mark's National Anglican Theological College in Canberra, Australia, and has previously written for Liturgical Press in the US.

Murder in an English village. Unsolved mysteries. An empty nester longing for a quiet life. What could possibly go wrong? After a challenging week, event organizer Megan Fallon returns to her childhood home for some much-needed friends and family time. But what promised to be a leisurely break soon takes a chilling turn when the tranquil English village becomes the scene of its very own murder mystery, and Megan finds herself at the heart of the investigation. As she juggles looking for clues with organizing a family celebration, Megan soon begins to suspect even those she once trusted. Could any of them really have committed such terrible crimes? Thank goodness for a little light relief courtesy of her favourite adventure-seeking uncle, a clumsy childhood acquaintance who's undergone a startling transformation, and a cantankerous tabby cat who's always guaranteed to provide plenty of feline mischief. Settle down in a comfortable chair with this FREE first-in-series cozy mystery with secrets and hidden motives that will keep you guessing until the very end. This is a clean contemporary cozy mystery with characters who'll stay with you long after you've finished.
