Modern Travel Exploration Adventure Travellers:

Travel and Exploration Samuel Carter Gilmour, Eustace Alfred Reynolds-Ball, 1909 Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake, 2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website Travel & Exploration, 1909 An illustrated monthly of travel exploration sport and adventure The Publishers Weekly, 1923 The Arabian Desert in English Travel Writing Since 1950 Jenny Walker, 2022-12-30 Broadly this book is about the Arabian desert as the locus of exploration by a long tradition of British travellers that includes T E Lawrence and Wilfred Thesiger more specifically it is about those who since 1950 have followed in their literary footsteps In analysing modern works covering a land greater than the sum of its geographical parts the discussion identifies outmoded tropes that continue to impinge upon the perception of the Middle East today while recognising that the laboured binaries of East and West desert and sown noble and savage have outrun their course Where however only a barren legacy of latent Orientalism may have been expected the author finds instead a rich seam of writing that exhibits diversity of purpose and insight contributing to contemporary discussions on travel and tourism intercultural representation and environmental awareness By addressing a lack of scholarly attention towards recent additions to the genre this study illustrates for the benefit of students of travel literature or indeed anyone interested in Arabia how desert writing under the emerging configurations of globalisation postcolonialism and ecocriticism acts as a microcosm of the kinds of ethical and emotional dilemmas confronting today's travel writers in the world's most extreme regions Cyclopaedia of Modern Travel Bayard Taylor, 1860 Sport & Adventure in Africa William John Townsend Shorthose, 1923 Cyclopaedia of Modern Travel Bayard Taylor, 1856 Cyclopaedia of Modern Travel Bayard Taylor, 1869 Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing, Warwick Frost, 2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2025-04-11 The new edition of Travel Writing is an accessible and interdisciplinary guide to this prolific and popular literary genre Carl Thompson offers a clear and concise overview of the long history of travel writing from the ancient world to the present day Considering a wide range of primary sources from Sir Walter Raleigh to Jenny Diski the extensively updated second edition introduces the genre and outlines key debates within the field such as gender sexuality postcolonial studies and visual culture explores the genre's autobiographical dimensions and different approaches for depicting the self surveys a range of canonical and more marginal works featuring new discussion of refugee and migrant narratives and LGBTQ travel writing includes a new chapter walking readers through the developments in the genre since the first edition such as online forms environmentalism and ecocriticism and travel writing as an increasingly transnational multicultural genre With a comprehensive glossary and further reading Travel Writing Second Edition is an ideal primer to the genre for students bridging the gap between distant times and distant places as well as offering literary studies scholars an essential overview of current debates in the field
