Modernism On Sea Modernism On Sea:

Modernism on Sea Lara Feigel, Alexandra Harris, 2009 These lively and intelligent essays examine artistic responses to the British seaside from the 1930s onwards including writers and artists such as Virginia Woolf Sylvia Plath and John Piper

Modernity at Sea Cesare Casarino, 2002 At once a literary philosophical meditation on the question of modernity and a manifesto for a new form of literary criticism Modernity at Sea argues that the nineteenth century sea narrative played a crucial role in the emergence of a theory of modernity as permanent crisis In a series of close readings of such works as Herman Melville's White Jacket and Moby Dick Joseph Conrad's The Nigger of the Narcissus and The Secret Sharer and Karl Marx's Grundrisse Cesare Casarino draws upon the thought of twentieth century figures including Giorgio Agamben Louis Althusser Walter Benjamin Leo Bersani Gilles Deleuze Félix Guattari and Antonio Negri to characterize the nineteenth century ship narrative as the epitome of Michel Foucault's heterotopia a special type of space that simultaneously represents inverts and contests all other spaces in culture Elaborating Foucault's claim that the ship has been the heterotopia par excellence of Western civilization since the Renaissance Casarino goes on to argue that the nineteenth century sea narrative froze the world of the ship just before its disappearance thereby capturing at once its apogee and its end and producing the ship as the matrix of modernity Modernism on the Open Sea Fumihiko Maki, 2013 Ship Style Bruce Peter, 2010

Ship Style Philip Dawson, Bruce Peter, 2010 Modernism's Mythic Pose Carrie J. Preston, 2011-09-05 The ancient world served as an unconventional source of inspiration for a generation of modernists Drawing on examples from literature dance photography and film Modernism's Mythic Pose argues that a strain of antimodern classicism permeates modernist celebrations of novelty shock and technology The touchstone of Preston's study is Delsartism the popular transnational movement which promoted mythic statue posing poetic recitation and other hybrid solo performances for health and spiritual development Derived from nineteenth century acting theorist Francois Delsarte and largely organized by women Delsartism shaped modernist performances genres and ideas of gender Even Ezra Pound a famous promoter of the new made ancient figures speak in the old genre of the dramatic monologue and performed public recitations Recovering precedents in nineteenth century popular entertainments and Delsartism's hybrid performances this book considers the canonical modernists Pound and T S Eliot lesser known poets like Charlotte Mew the Russian filmmaker Lev Kuleshov Isadora Duncan the international dance star and H D as poet and film actor Preston's interdisciplinary engagement with performance poetics modern dance and silent film demonstrates that studies of modernism often overemphasize breaks with the past Modernism also posed myth in an ambivalent relationship to modernity a halt in the march of progress that could function as escapism skeptical critique or a figure for the death of gods and civilizations Wide Sargasso Sea at 50 Elaine Savory, Erica L. Johnson, 2020-11-03 This book revisits Jean Rhys's ground breaking 1966 novel to explore its cultural and artistic influence in the areas of not only literature and literary criticism but fashion design visual art and the theatre as well Building on symposia that were held in London and New York in 2016 in honour of the novel's half century this collection demonstrates just how timely Rhys's insights into colonial history, sexual relations and aesthetics continue to be. The chapters include an extensive interview with novelist Caryl Phillips who in 2018 published a novel about Rhys's life, an account of how Wide Sargasso Sea can be read through the lens of the MeToo Movement, a clothing line inspired by the novel and new critical directions. As both a celebration and scholarly evaluation, the collection shows how enduring Rhys's novel is in its continuing literary influence and social commentary.

Vogue, 1929 Image of the Sea Howard F. Isham, 2004. This book explores the unprecedented surge of oceanic feeling in the aesthetic expression of the romantic century. As secular thought began to displace the certainties of a sacral universe, the oceans that give life to our planet offered a symbol of eternity rooted in the experience of nature rather than Biblical tradition. Images of the sea permeated the minds of the early Romantics; became a significant ingredient of romantic expression and continued to emerge in the language, literature, art and music of the nineteenth century. These pages document the evidence for this oceanic consciousness in some of the most creative minds of that century.

The final third of the book reproduces five pivotal lectures. Harvard Design Magazine, 2001

Vernacular Modernism advocates a rethinking of the importance of the vernacular as part of the modernist discourse of place, from art to literature, from architectural to social practice. The Enchanted Sea-gull Harriet Bartnett, Roxroy Keene, 1917 The Culture Programme European Commission.
