The Uncertain Image Ulrik Ekman, Daniela Agostinho, Nanna Bonde Thylstrup, Kristin Veel, 2020-04-28 Citizens of networked societies are almost incessantly accompanied by ecologies of images These ecologies of still and moving images present a paradox of uncertainties emerging along with certainties Images appear more certain as the technical capacities that render them visible increase At the same time images are touched by more uncertainty as their numbers manipulabilities and contingencies multiply With the emergence of big data the image is becoming a dominant vehicle for the construction and presentation of the truth of data Images present themselves as so many promises of the certainty predictability and intelligibility offered by data The focus of this book is twofold It analyses the kinds of images appearing today showing how they are marked by a return to modern photographic emphases on high resolution clarity and realistic representation Secondly it discusses the ways in which the uncertainty of images is increasingly underscored within such reiterated emphases on allegedly certain visual truths This often involves renewed encounters with noise grain glitch blur vagueness and indistinctness This book provides the reader with an intriguing transdisciplinary investigation of the uncertainly certain relation between the cultural imagination and the techno aesthetic regime of big data and ubiquitous computing This book was originally published as a special issue of Digital Creativity

Endangered City Austin Zeiderman, 2016-05-19 Security and risk have become central to how cities are planned built governed and inhabited in the twenty first century In Endangered City Austin Zeiderman focuses on this new political imperative to govern the present in anticipation of future harm Through ethnographic fieldwork and archival research in Bogot Colombia he examines how state actors work to protect the lives of poor and vulnerable citizens from a range of threats including environmental hazards and urban violence By following both the governmental agencies charged with this mandate and the subjects governed by it Endangered City reveals what happens when logics of endangerment shape the terrain of political engagement between citizens and the state The self built settlements of Bogot s urban periphery prove a critical site from which to examine the rising effect of security and risk on contemporary cities and urban life

Uncertainty by Design Limor Samimian-Darash, 2022-04-15 In

Uncertainty by Design Limor Samimian Darash presents cases of the use of scenario technology in the fields of security and emergency preparedness energy and health by analyzing scenario narratives and practices at the National Emergency Management Authority in Israel the World Health Organization s Regional Office for Europe and the World Energy Council Humankind has long struggled with the uncertainty of the future with how to foresee the future imagine alternatives or prepare for and guard against undesirable eventualities Scenario or scenario planning emerged in recent decades to become a widespread means through which states large corporations and local organizations imagine and prepare for the future The scenario technology cases examined in Uncertainty by Design provide a useful lens through which to view contemporary efforts to engage in an overall journey of discovering the future along with the modality of governing involved in these endeavors to face future uncertainties Collectively they enable us to understand in depth how scenarios express a new governing modality

Underwater Rebecca Elliott,2021-01-05 Communities around the United States face the threat of being underwater This is not only a matter of rising waters reaching the doorstep It is also the threat of being financially underwater owning assets worth less than the money borrowed to obtain them Many areas around the country may become economically uninhabitable before they become physically unlivable In Underwater Rebecca Elliott explores how families communities and governments confront problems of loss as the climate changes She offers the first in depth account of the politics and social effects of the U S National Flood Insurance Program NFIP which provides flood insurance protection for virtually all homes and small businesses that require it In doing so the NFIP turns the risk of flooding into an immediate economic reality shaping who lives on the waterfront on what terms and at what cost Drawing on archival interview ethnographic and other documentary data Elliott follows controversies over the NFIP from its establishment in the 1960s to the present from local backlash over flood maps to Congressional debates over insurance reform Though flood insurance is often portrayed as a rational solution for managing risk it has ignited recurring fights over what is fair and valuable what needs protecting and what should be let go who deserves assistance and on what terms and whose expectations of future losses are used to govern the present An incisive and comprehensive consideration of the fundamental dilemmas of moral economy underlying insurance Underwater sheds new light on how Americans cope with loss as the water rises

Far from the Caliph's Gaze Nicholas H. A. Evans,2020-05-15 How do you prove that you re Muslim This is not a question that most believers ever have to ask themselves and yet for members of India s Ahmadiyya Muslim Community it poses an existential challenge The Ahmadis are the minority of a minority people for whom simply being Muslim is a challenge They must constantly ask the question What evidence could ever be sufficient to prove that I belong to the faith In Far from the Caliph's Gaze Nicholas H A Evans explores how a need to respond to this question shapes the lives of Ahmadis in Qadian in northern India Qadian was the birthplace of the Ahmadiyya community s founder and it remains a location of huge spiritual importance for members of the community around the world Nonetheless it has been physically separated from the Ahmadis spiritual leader the caliph since partition and the believers who live there now and act as its guardians must confront daily the reality of this separation even while attempting to make their Muslimness verifiable By exploring the centrality of this separation to the ethics of everyday life in Qadian Far from the Caliph s Gaze presents a new model for the academic study of religious doubt one that is not premised on a concept of belief but instead captures the richness with which people might experience problematic relationships to truth
