Mohammed Wordsworth Classics Of World Literature:

Muhammad Is Not the Father of Any of Your Men David S. Powers, 2011-06-03 The Islamic claim to supersede Judaism and Christianity is embodied in the theological assertion that the office of prophecy is hereditary but that the line of descent ends with Muhammad who is the seal or last of the prophets While Muhammad had no natural sons who reached the age of maturity he is said to have adopted a man named Zayd and mutual rights of inheritance were created between the two Zayd b Muhammad also known as the Beloved of the Messenger of God was the first adult male to become a Muslim and the only Muslim apart from Muhammad to be named in the Qur'an But if prophecy is hereditary and Muhammad has a son David Powers argues then he might not be the Last Prophet Conversely if he is the Last Prophet he cannot have a son In Muhammad Is Not the Father of Any of Your Men Powers contends that a series of radical moves were made in the first two centuries of Islamic history to ensure Muhammad's position as the Last Prophet He focuses on narrative accounts of Muhammad's repudiation of Zayd of his marriage to Zayd's former wife and of Zayd's martyrdom in battle against the Byzantines Powers argues that theological imperatives drove changes in the historical record and led to the abolition or reform of key legal institutions In what is likely to be the most controversial aspect of his book he offers compelling physical evidence that the text of the Qur'an itself was altered

Pax Ethnica Karl E. Meyer, Shareen Blair Brysac, 2012-03-13 Explores places noted for minimal violence rising life expectancy high literacy and pragmatic compromises on cultural rights documenting the ways and means that have proven successful in defusing ethnic tensions and maintaining peace

Public Private Partnership Contracts Mohamed Ismail, 2020-03-18 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the law surrounding PPPs in the Middle East and North African region The significance of liberalised and integrated Public Private Partnership Contracts as an essential component of the world legal and policy order is well documented The regulation of PPPs is justified economically to allow for competition in the relevant public service and to achieve price transparency thus resulting in significant savings for the public sector In parallel to the economic justifications legal imperatives have also called for the regulation of PPPs in order to allow free movement of goods and services and to prohibit discrimination on grounds of nationality The need for competitiveness and transparency in delivering public services through PPPs is considered a safeguard to achieve international standards in delivering public utility services First it assesses the compatibility of the current PPPs legislation and regulation in the MENA region with the international standards of legislation and regulation prevalent in many other countries including the UK France and Brazil Secondly it compares the practices in the MENA region with those of international bodies such as the OECD and World Bank Comparisons are then made between the MENA countries and those in Europe and Asia with regard to the influence of culture policy and legal globalization The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of international contract law public law and state contracts finance law and private law

Tianxia in Comparative Perspectives Roger T. Ames, Sor-hoon Tan, Steven

Y. H. Yang, 2023 Tianxia conventionally translated as all under Heaven in everyday Chinese parlance simply means the world. But tianxia is also a geopolitical term found in canonical writings that has a deeper historical and philosophical significance. Although there are many understandings of tianxia in this literature, interpretations within the Chinese process cosmology generally begin with an ecological understanding of intra-national relations that acknowledge the mutuality and interdependence of all economic and political activity. This volume contextualizes the tianxia vision of geopolitical order within a variety of strategies drawn from a broad spectrum of cultures and peoples: Buddhist, Islamic, Indian, African, Confucian, European. The conversation among the contributors is guided by several central questions: Is tianxia the only model of cosmopolitanism? Are there ideas and ideals comparable to tianxia that exist in other cultures? What alternative perspectives of global justice have inspired Western, Indian, Islamic, Buddhist, and African cultural traditions? The fundamental premise here is that in order for a planetary tianxia system to be relevant and significant for the present time and for our vision of the future, it must acknowledge the plurality of moral ideals defining the world's cultures while at the same time seek practical ways to formulate a minimalist morality that can provide the solidarity needed to bring the world's people together.

Political Theory and South Asian Counter-Narratives Maidul Islam, 2021-09-28. This book evaluates the promise of human progress and secularism in grand political narratives of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, comparing counter-narratives of South Asia within the context of a fast-changing twenty-first century. The book embraces a broad range of sources and theoretical approaches that include political philosophy, film, and ideological discourse analysis. In the twenty-first century, global inequality and significant growth of religious and majoritarian nationalisms have been appended with a protracted economic slowdown and recession in many countries. Examining what went wrong in terms of secularism and distributive justice in India, this book critiques the Euro-American visions of democracy, global capitalism, and their so-called universality. As an alternative, it proposes a progressive politics of radical democracy for the Indian people. Reconsidering alternatives to capitalism, western secularism, and the radical possibilities of Islamism, Political Theory and South Asian Counter Narratives will appeal to students and scholars of political theory, international relations, global history, and South Asian politics.

Mir Zohair Husain, 2003. The primary intention of this book is to explore, analyze, and explain global Islamic politics. In doing so, this text discusses the root causes, characteristics, consequences, and implications of global Islamic politics. Written in a simple and clear style and providing in-depth definitions of key terms, Global Islamic Politics aims to make this important and complex subject accessible to all readers. In addition, the book offers suggestions for ameliorating the relations between the Muslim world and the West in a way that promotes mutual understanding and peace rather than misunderstanding and conflict.
