faith fortitude and unflinching devotion in the life of a saint whose tale transcends time In the rough wilderness of 17th century North America a young lady born into the Mohawk tribe dared to accept a bold calling one that would lead to profound spiritual development and eventually sainthood Kateri Tekakwitha deformed by smallpox and orphaned as a child grew up in a world of competing cultures and spiritual strife In the face of unrelenting hostility from her own people she discovered a strong unwavering trust in Christ which was spurred by her meeting with Jesuit missionaries In this book Rev Tobias Hartwell brings Kateri s journey to life by mixing vivid details of her challenges and victories with the rich spiritual traditions of the Iroquois and Catholic worlds This is more than just a saint s narrative it is a heart pilgrimage demonstrating the power of faith in the face of suffering Kateri s brave decision to embrace Christianity led her on a path of sacrifice and prayer and her brilliant commitment became a beacon for all who saw her With poetic grace and historical depth Hartwell takes us through Kateri s most private moments her mystical visions her unbreakable pledge of virginity her growing relationship with God and the physical and spiritual hardships she bore with dignity The Lily of the Mohawks transports readers into Kateri s world allowing them to experience her challenges joys and the tremendous impact she left behind From the snow covered woodlands of the Mohawk Valley to the Christian community of Kahnawake where her life of prayer and penance grew Hartwell creates a vivid image of a lady whose faith continues to inspire millions around the world For those looking for an exceptional story of faith resilience and grace The Lily of the Mohawks is a riveting journey into the life of St Kateri Tekakwitha a saint for all people and times Readers will find in her example a source of spiritual refreshment a call to deeper prayer and a model of how to live with bravery and compassion in a society divided by fear and mistrust Rev Tobias Hartwell s book is both spiritually edifying and tremendously moving a monument to the enduring power of dedication and a lesson that even in the desert the purest flowers can flourish
