African American Female Leadership in Major Motion Pictures

Tracy L.F. Worley, 2024-02-09 This book explores the factors contributing to the under representation of African American female directors in mainstream cinema leadership It also unmaskes the potential strategies African American female film directors might pursue to reduce this inequity Author Tracy L F Worley draws on research around ethics to conclude that there are specific consequences of the male gaze on women in cinema leadership especially African American female directors of box office cinema Combining extensive analysis of ethics and ethical stance relative to the motion picture industry with perspectives from working African American female directors the text discusses the ethical considerations and historical inequities including the male gaze and uses those findings to define how the inequities can be opportunities The efficacy model for cinematic leadership is presented as a mechanism for viewing obstacles through the lenses of gender ethnicity and culture so they become drivers for African American women to achieve success Ideal for students of directing and filmmaking as well as aspiring professional filmmakers wishing to gain a better understanding of the industry as it stands today

Barr, 2008 Afro Future Females Black Writers Chart Science Fiction s Newest New Wave Trajectory edited by Marleen S Barr is the first combined science fiction critical anthology and short story collection to focus upon black women via written and visual texts The volume creates a dialogue with existing theories of Afro Futurism in order to generate fresh ideas about how to apply race to science fiction studies in terms of gender The contributors including Hortense Spillers Samuel R Delany Octavia E Butler and Steven Barnes formulate a woman centered Afro Futurism by repositioning previously excluded fiction to redefine science fiction as a broader fantastic endeavor They articulate a platform for scholars to mount a vigorous argument in favor of redefining science fiction to encompass varieties of fantastic writing and therefore to include a range of black women s writing that would otherwise be excluded Afro Future Females builds upon Barr s previous work in black science fiction and fills a gap in the literature It is the first critical anthology to address the blackness of outer space fiction in terms of feminism emphasizing that it is necessary to revise the very nature of a genre that has been constructed in such a way as to exclude its new black participants Black science fiction writers alter genre conventions to change how we read and define science fiction itself The work s main point black science fiction is the most exciting literature of the nascent twenty first century Six Female Black Playwrights Elizabeth Brown,1982 MAWA Review ,1992 Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System.
