Monday Messages Reflections On Life Leadership And Learning In Our Schools:

Monday Messages Lou Antonetti, 2014-07-14 While living the code of conduct in our high school of over 2 400 students it was easy to see that procedures can only be enforced when the principles behind them are fully understood The human side of education is something that is lacking as we prepare for state assessments and bring attention to those who conduct themselves inappropriately The microcosm of a world we live in within our schools sometimes makes us rigid and non trusting due to the need to control student behavior We have found in our high school that student disciplinary referrals decreased by 50% because of the trust that was achieved with our students By using life lessons in the formal curriculum based education process you not only promote good morals and values but you remind people that there is a bigger picture The weekly messages quotes and vignettes contained in this book will hopefully inspire you to not only be a better educator student or coach but also a better person for your family friends and co workers It is important to reflect on our behavior since our reputation is based on our daily interactions and habits I have never heard of anyone who has bought back their reputation once it was lost Leadership by example at home and in the workplace along with an ego less demeanor will allow us to be great leaders both in our schools and personal lives
