An Outline Course of Study for the Elementary Public Schools of North Carolina, 1919 Academic Assessment and Intervention Steven Little, Angeleque Akin-Little, 2014-01-21 Serving students with academic deficiencies necessitates communication and collaboration among professionals from several disciplines Academic Assessment and Intervention brings together divergent approaches in order to demonstrate that scientific evidence rather than biases or previous practice must determine assessment practices that are selected and used for particular purposes Similar to a handbook in its comprehensive topical coverage this edited collection provides a contextual foundation for academic assessment and intervention describes both norm referenced and curriculum based assessment measurement in detail considers the implications of both of these assessments on ethnically diverse populations provides a clear link between assessment evidence based interventions and the RTI model and considers other important topics related to this area such as teacher behavior Intended primarily for graduate level courses in education school psychology or child clinical psychology it will also be of interest to practicing professionals in these fields Educational Bulletin ... North Carolina. Department of Public Instruction, 1902 Special Education in Contemporary Society Richard M. Gargiulo, 2012 Special Education in Contemporary Society An Introduction to Exceptionality is designed for use by preservice and inservice teachers who will teach students with special needs in the general classroom The text provides a rare glimpse into the lives of persons with exceptionalities including their families and teachers Focusing on human exceptionalities across the life span the text employs a traditional organization beginning with four foundations chapters that introduce teachers to special education followed by 10 categorical chapters each on a different disability Each categorical chapter features sections on transition cultural diversity technology instructional strategies and family considerations The School News and Practical Educator, 1913 Gardeners' Chronicle, 1925 The School, 1929 Primary Education, 1904 New York Teachers' Monographs, 1916 Approaches to Beginning Reading Robert C. Aukerman, 1984 Household Words, 1855

Moderator-topics, 1916 Teachers Monographs, 1916 Best Practices in School Neuropsychology Daniel C. Miller, Denise E. Maricle, Christopher L. Bedford, Julie A. Gettman, 2022-03-24 The latest edition of the gold standard in school neuropsychology references In the newly revised Second Edition of Best Practices in School Neuropsychology Guidelines for Effective Practice Assessment and Evidence Based Intervention a team of psychological experts delivers a thoroughly updated treatment of modern issues and challenges in school neuropsychology The editors provide comprehensive discussions of current assessment and intervention models best practices in assessing cognitive processes and the important task of collaborating with parents educators and other professionals This latest edition includes Explorations of the unique challenges posed by working with culturally diverse student populations Clinical advice for learning specialists and neuropsychologists engaged with special populations and students with academic disabilities processing deficits or medical disorders New chapters on assessment and intervention with children suffering from trauma or substance abuse Perfect for psychologists neuropsychologists clinicians and academics working in or studying school environments Best Practices in School Neuropsychology is a must read reference for practitioners working with children and students who seek a one stop reference for evidence informed assessment and intervention guidelines Special Education in Contemporary Society Richard M. Gargiulo - Professor Emeritus, Emily C. Bouck, 2024-12-17 Special Education in Contemporary Society An Introduction to Exceptionality offers a comprehensive engaging and readable introduction to the dynamic field of special education Grounded in the latest research it reflects current educational standards and equips students with the knowledge skills attitudes and beliefs needed to create inclusive learning environments that empower all students to reach their full potential Authors Richard M Gargiulo and Emily C Bouck encourage a deep awareness and understanding of the human side of special education offering insightful perspectives into the lives of exceptional students their families and the dedicated teachers who support them The Eighth Edition of this text has been updated with new information on specific disabilities and challenges issues of diversity and equity within special education and the latest statistics and research that are a hallmark of this book Let's Begin Reading Right Marjorie Vannoy Fields, Lois A. Groth, Katherine Spangler, 2004 Written from a constructivist viewpoint this popular book for future teachers of children from preschool through the primary grades focuses on how young children construct literacy and how teachers can support and guide that activity through developmentally appropriate teaching practices Advocates giving children a choice of the reading material from which they will learn and caution against grouping children solely by literacy ability Examines current research into emergent and holistic literacy and tie its findings to instructional practices that teach such skills as phonemic awareness phonics and spelling within the context of meaningful reading and writing tasks Increased coverage of assessment emphasizes performance based alternatives to standardized testing during early childhood and examines current recommendations in terms of developmentally appropriate practice Provides a strong explanation of shared and interactive writing Discusses literacy development in infants and toddlers For future or current teachers interested in literacy or reading methods in early childhood Childhood, Well-Being and a Therapeutic Ethos Richard House, Del Loewenthal, 2018-04-17 A key theme of this book is that we urgently need a therapeutic ethos in order to bring both educational and therapeutic sensibilities to bear on the issue of children's wellbeing if truly effective and appropriate policy responses to the current malaise are to be fashioned Not least we must pay particular attention to childhood experience showing that scientific and technical developments are always secondary to the resources of the human soul if we are to minimize the extent to which today's children will need therapy as adults This will entail moving beyond narrowly mechanistic definitions of and ways of thinking about well being and the psychological therapies This book offers pointers to the kinds of arguments that can inform what is rapidly becoming a central concern of politicians and policy makers The Classical Weekly, 1908 Army-Navy-Air Force Register and
