From Corporate to Social Media Marisol Sandoval, 2014-03-05. The corporate and the social are crucial themes of our times. In the first decade of the twenty first century both individual lives and society were shaped by capitalist crisis and the rise of social media. But what marks the distinctively social character of social media? And how does it relate to the wider social and economic context of contemporary capitalism? The concept of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is based on the idea that a socially responsible capitalism is possible; this suggests that capitalist media corporations can not only enable social interaction and cooperation but also be socially responsible. This book provides a critical and provocative perspective on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) in media and communication industries. It examines both the academic discourse on CSR and actual corporate practices in the media sector, offering a double critique that reveals contradictions between corporate interests and social responsibilities. Marisol Sandoval's political economic analysis of Apple, AT&T, Google, HP, Microsoft, News Corp, The Walt Disney Company and Vivendi shows that media and communication in the twenty first century are confronted with fundamental social responsibility challenges. From software patents and intellectual property rights to privacy on the Internet from working conditions in electronics manufacturing to hidden flows of eWaste this book encourages the reader to explore the multifaceted social responsibilities that shape commercial media landscapes today It makes a compelling argument for thinking beyond the corporate in order to envision and bring about truly social media It will interest students and scholars of media studies cultural industry studies sociology information society studies organization studies political economy business and management Teaching Pre-Employment Skills to 14-17-Year-Olds Joanne Lara, Susan Osborne, 2017-08-21 Teaching young people with autism workplace skills while they are still school aged is essential for helping them get jobs once they are ready to enter employment This ready made curriculum does exactly that with a structured program for teaching groups of students aged 14 17 vital pre employment skills from interviewing to networking
