Monthly Film Bulletin ,1959 Handbook of Children's Rights Martin D. Ruck,Michele Peterson-Badali,Michael Freeman,2016-12-08 While the notion of young people as individuals worthy or capable of having rights is of relatively recent origin over the past several decades there has been a substantial increase in both social and political commitment to children s rights as well as a tendency to grant young people some of the rights that were typically accorded only to adults In addition there has been a noticeable shift in orientation from a focus on children s protection and provision to an emphasis on children s participation and self determination With contributions from a wide range of international scholars the Handbook of Children s Rights brings together research theory and practice from diverse perspectives on children s rights This volume constitutes a comprehensive treatment of critical perspectives concerning children s rights in their various forms Its contributions address some of the major scholarly tensions and policy debates comprising the current discourse on children s rights including the best interests of the child evolving capacities of the child states rights versus children s rights rights of children versus parental or family rights children as citizens children s rights versus children s responsibilities and balancing protection and participation In addition to its multidisciplinary focus the handbook includes perspectives from social science domains in which children s rights scholarship has evolved largely independently due to distinct and seemingly competing assumptions and disciplinary approaches e.g childhood studies developmental psychology sociology of childhood anthropology and political science The handbook also brings together diverse methodological approaches to the study of children s rights including both quantitative and qualitative perspectives and policy analysis This comprehensive cosmopolitan and timely volume serves as an important reference for both scholarly and policy driven interest in the voices and perspectives of children and youth

M. Longo,Tyler J. Longo,2025-10-06 What if you could learn financial literacy from Warren Buffett himself Finance is a language like any other the more fluently you speak it the further and more comfortably you travel And if you want to improve your financial literacy what better teacher could you have than Warren Buffett Often described as the greatest investor of all time Warren Buffett started his investment firm with 100 in the late 1950s and went on to become the billionaire and sage we know today Along the way he s reaped huge profits for fellow investors in Berkshire Hathaway and remains one of the most sought after and closely watched figures in the business world So how did he do it In Buffett s Tips award winning professor and professional investor John M Longo demonstrates just how by translating decades of Buffett s writings and media appearances into a 100 straightforward tips and strategies anyone can follow for enhanced financial literacy and independence including Essential concepts like the time value of money and compound interest Basic financial instruments such as savings and checking accounts and certificates of deposit Approaches to valuing stock including discounted cash flow and relative valuation How to build a portfolio in accordance with Buffett s two golden rules Whether you want to grow your personal finances develop your business acumen or improve softer career skills such as emotional intelligence there s no one better to learn from than the most famous investor in the world and no better way to do that than having a copy of Buffett s Tips close at hand Christian Advocate ,1910 Natural Science ,1898 Envisioning Black Feminist Voodoo Aesthetics Kameelah L. Martin,2016-09-30 In the twenty first century American popular culture increasingly makes visible the performance of African spirituality by black women Disney s Princess and the Frog and Pirates of the Caribbean franchise are two notable examples The reliance on the black priestess of African derived religion as an archetype however has a much longer history steeped in the colonial othering of Haitian Vodou and American imperialist fantasies about so called black magic Within this cinematic study Martin unravels how religious autonomy impacts the identity function and perception of Africana women in the American popular imagination Martin interrogates seventy five years of American film representations of black women engaged in conjure hoodoo obeah or Voodoo to discern what happens when race gender and African spirituality collide She develops the framework of Voodoo aesthetics or the inscription of African cosmologies on the black female body as the theoretical lens through which to scrutinize black female religious performance in film Martin places the genre of film in conversation with black feminist womanist criticism offering an interdisciplinary approach to film analysis Positioning the black priestess as another iteration of Patricia Hill Collins notion of controlling images Martin theorizes whether film functions as a safe space for a racial and gendered embodiment in the performance of African diasporic religion Approaching the close reading of eight signature films from a black female spectatorship Martin works chronologically to express the trajectory of the black priestess as cinematic motif over the last century of filmmaking Conceptually Martin recalibrates the scholarship on black women and representation by distinctly centering black women as ritual specialists and Black Atlantic spirituality on the silver screen

Railway Mechanical and Electrical Engineer ,1848 Text, Speech and Dialogue Petr Sojka,Ivan Kopecek,Karel Pala,2003-08-02 The Text Speech and Dialogue TSD Conference 2002 it should be noticed is now being held for the fth time and we are pleased to observe that in its short history it has turned out to be an international forum successfully intertwining the basic elds of NLP It is our strong hope that the conference contributes to a better understanding between researchers from the various areas and promotes more intensive mutual cooperation So far the communication between man and computers has displayed a one way nature humans have to know how the chines work and only then can they understand them The opposite however is still quite far from being real our understanding of how our user friendly computers can understand us humans is not deep enough yet A lot of work has to be done both in the near and distant future Let TSD 2002 be a modest contribution to this goal The conference also serves well in its second purpose to facilitate researchers meeting in the NLP eld from Western and Eastern Europe Moreover many participants now come from other parts of the world thus making TSD a real crossroadsforresearchersintheNLParea Thisvolumecontainstheproceedings of this conference held in Brno September 9 12 2002 We were honored to have as keynote speakers James Pustejovsky from Brandeis University and Ronald Cole from the University of Colorado We would like to thank all the Program Committee members and external reviewers for their conscientious and diligent reviewing work
