Understanding Reddit Elliot T. Panek, 2021-12-24 This book offers a comprehensive scholarly overview of Reddit one of the most popular and least studied social platforms of the early 21st century The book inspires new ways of thinking about Reddit considering it from multiple perspectives through a historical lens as a site where identity is forged as a democracy as a community and as a news aggregator and distributor By bringing theories from computer mediated communication communication studies and sociology to bear on original large scale observational analyses of Reddit s communities this book provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of the platform s first 15 years Understanding Reddit will help us make sense of how rapidly growing communities function in an era of mass online anonymity Serving both as a primer on how social behavior on Reddit plays out and as a way of locating it within multiple theoretical traditions the book will offer important insights to scholars and students in the disciplines of communication media studies information science internet and emerging media studies and sociology

Gehl,2025 Move Slowly and Build Bridges tells the story of activists software developers artists and everyday people who have built the fediverse a large noncentralized alternative social media system In contrast to big tech corporations like Meta TikTok or X the fediverse is comprised of thousands of small independent communities who use a powerful internet protocol to communicate with one another These small communities can govern themselves and moderate content at the human scale in stark contrast to the global and advertiser friendly interests of Meta or X The Mastodon network is perhaps the most notable and successful platform in the fediverse Founded in 2016 Mastodon has positioned itself as an alternative to Twitter one that can be completely under the control of its members from it to its daily operations to its underlying software Making a noncentralized ethically run social media system is no easy task The people building the fediverse have faced burnout bigotry angry debates and death threats And they face constant nagging doubts can we really do this Can noncentralized social media survive Can we all of us have our own social media In this thoroughly researched book Robert W Gehl argues that the answer is yes but it won t be easy The Publications of the Pipe Roll Society ,2012 Some vols include Report of the Society Rise of the Far Right Melody Devries,Judith Bessant,Rob Watts,2021-07-29 After decades on the social and political margins far right groups and movements are enjoying increasing success and even claiming a place in mainstream electoral politics in many Western political systems Research shows that new media like Twitter YouTube and community sites likes 4chan and Reddit are increasingly involved with the mobilization of popular support for far right electoral campaigns and even organized political violence These technologies including other social media discussion websites certain online games chat servers talk radio cable news and print media are making contemporary far right ideologies possible in diverse ways altering methods of recruitment to the extent that they become unrecognizable from far right movements of the past and thus more dangerous The results of these new technological processes can be seen in the increasing normalization of far right values within mainstream culture politics and media ecosystems within countries from the United States Britain Australia Germany and Hungary This book brings together recent academic research exploring how far right groups use new media to recruit followers to extremist beliefs and mobilize political action In doing so the book reveals the complex ways that evolving technologies are used both purposively subtly and in some cases incidentally to recruit and mobilize far right support
