Handbook of Genocide Studies David J. Simon, Leora Kahn, 2023-02-14 Providing an intellectual biography of the challenging concept of genocide this topical Handbook takes an interdisciplinary approach to shed new light on the events processes and legacies in the field

Hidden Genocides Alexander Laban Hinton, Thomas La Pointe, Douglas Irvin-Erickson, 2013-12-18 Why are some genocides prominently remembered while others are ignored hidden or denied Consider the Turkish campaign denying the Armenian genocide followed by the Armenian movement to recognize the violence Similar movements are building to acknowledge other genocides that have long remained out of sight in the media such as those against the Circassians Greeks Assyrians the indigenous peoples in the Americas and Australia and the violence that was the precursor to and the aftermath of the Holocaust The contributors to this collection look at these cases and others from a variety of perspectives These essays cover the extent to which our biases our ways of knowing our patterns of definition our assumptions about truth and our processes of remembering and forgetting as well as the characteristics of generational transmission the structures of power and state ideology and diaspora have played a role in hiding some events and not others Noteworthy among the collection's coverage is whether the trade in African slaves was a form of genocide and a discussion not only of Hutu brutalizing Tutsi victims in Rwanda but of the execution of moderate Hutus as well

Hidden Genocides is a significant contribution in terms of both descriptive narratives and interpretations to the emerging subfield of critical genocide studies Contributors Daniel Feierstein Donna Lee Frieze Krista Hegburg Alexander Laban Hinton Adam Jones A Dirk Moses Chris M. Ntunga Walter Richmond Hannibal Travis and Elisa von Joeden-Forgey

The Resistance Network Khatchig Mouradian, 2021-01-01 The Resistance Network is the history of an underground network of humanitarians missionaries and diplomats in Ottoman Syria who helped save the lives of thousands during the Armenian Genocide Khatchig Mouradian challenges depictions of Armenians as passive victims of violence and subjects of humanitarianism demonstrating the key role they played in organizing a humanitarian resistance against the destruction of their people Piecing together hundreds of accounts official documents and missionary records Mouradian presents a social history of genocide and resistance in wartime Aleppo and a network of transit and concentration camps stretching from Bab to Ras ul Ain and Der Zor He ultimately argues that despite the violent and systematic mechanisms of control and destruction in the cities concentration camps and massacre sites in this region the genocide of the Armenians did not progress unhindered unarmed resistance proved an important factor in saving countless lives

Ethnopolitical Entrepreneurs Daniel Fittante,2023-12-15 Ethnopolitical Entrepreneurs presents the story of the Armenians of Glendale California Coming from Argentina Armenia Egypt Iran Jordan Lebanon Russia Syria and many other countries this group is internally fragmented and often has limited experience with the American political system Nonetheless Glendale s Armenians have rapidly mobilized and remade an American suburban space in their own likeness In telling their story Daniel Fittante expands our understanding of US political history From the late nineteenth century onward Irish Italian Jewish and several other immigrant populations in large American cities began changing the country s political reality The author shows how Glendale s Armenians as well as many other immigrants are now changing the country s political reality within its dynamic multiethnic suburbs The processes look different in various suburban contexts but the underlying narrative holds immigrant populations converge on suburban areas and ambitious political actors develop careers by driving coethnics political incorporation

The Battle for Bodies, Hearts and Minds in Postwar Greece Gonda Van

Steen,2023-12-01 The previously unpublished memoir of social worker Charles Schermerhorn offers new and eye opening source material pertaining to the epicenter of the early Cold War northern Greece This book brings this memoir to light to enrich the discussion about the Greek Civil War and the late 1940s through the highly perceptive views of a firsthand observer of the turmoil Schermerhorn s writings speak most compellingly to the power of human agency amid adverse sociopolitical circumstances His memoir takes a child centered and social historical approach to controversial events filling a great void in our knowledge This book looks at a single mid twentieth century crisis in multidimensional ways as a moral material social and institutional calamity that mobilized a motley crew of actors from new humanitarian aid organizations to press agents from soldiers to destitute repeat refugees from fledgling modern missionaries to foreign diplomats and economic strategists It was Schermerhorn s unique achievement to interact with them all seeking common ground in the arduous task of trying to improve living conditions for children and rural families But he also realized how easily foreign aid could become a tool of political power and expediency Focusing on the Greek Civil War this book will interest readers studying the Cold War the heated peripheries of proxy wars and the devastating social fallout of conflicts raging in areas hidden from public view The global history of humanitarian crises is a burgeoning field and Schermerhorn was the first to place Greek children and villagers who themselves left hardly any sources behind at the center of this urgent and ever relevant debate Turkey and EU Integration Çigdem Nas,Yonca Özer,2017-05-18

What has been achieved regarding Turkey s efforts at integration to the EU and what obstacles remain to it achieving full membership Like other developing countries Turkey displays visible signs of advancement with rapid increases in living standards greater mobility and the rapid spread of technology Much of its legislation and political economic and administrative systems are also now aligned to the EU and this process has undoubtedly contributed to democratization and modernization At the same time problems in politics and society persist the Gezi protests limitations of freedom of expression frequent occupational accidents in the mining and construction sectors honour killings and political upheaval which has manifested itself most starkly with the recent coup attempt all call attention to the challenges facing a country in the process of change Charting the political legal and economic relations between Turkey and the European Union since 1959 this book explores the relationship through phases such as association customs union and candidacy Each chapter covers a particular period in the relations and or a theme which has both current and overall relevance to the conduct of the relations In this way the authors examine the impact of the EU in affecting change what has been achieved and the obstacles that remain Climate Change and Genocide

Jürgen Zimmerer,2017-10-02 Climate change caused by human activity is the most fundamental challenge facing mankind in the 21st century since it will drastically alter the living conditions of millions of people mainly in the Global South Environmental violence including resource crises such as peak fossil fuel will lie at the heart of future conflicts However Genocide Studies have so far neglected this subject due to the emphasis that traditional genocide scholarship places on ideology and legal prosecution leading to a narrow understanding of the driving forces of genocide This books aims at changing this initiating a dialogue between scholars working in the areas of climate change and genocide Research into genocide as well as climate change is a highly interdisciplinary endeavour transcending the boundaries of established disciplines Contributions to this book address this by approaching the subject from a wide array of methodological theoretical disciplinary and regional perspectives As all the contributions show climate change is a major threat multiplier for violence or non violent destruction and any understanding of prevention needs to take this into account They offer a basis for much needed Critical Prevention Studies which aims at sustainable prevention This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Human Rights The Routledge Handbook of Memory Activism Yifat Gutman,Jenny Wüstenberg,2023-02-15 This Handbook is the first systematic effort to map the fast growing phenomenon of memory activism and to delineate a new field of research that lies at the intersection of memory and social movement studies From Charlottesville to Cape Town from Santiago to Sydney we have recently witnessed protesters demanding that symbols of racist or colonial pasts be dismantled and that we talk about histories that have long been silenced But such events are only the most visible instances of grassroots efforts to influence the meaning of the past in the present Made up of more than 80 chapters that encapsulate the rich diversity of scholarship and practice of memory activism by assembling different disciplinary traditions methodological approaches and empirical evidence from across the globe this Handbook establishes important questions and their theoretical implications arising from the social political and economic reality of memory activism Memory activism is multifaceted takes place in a variety of settings and has diverse outcomes but it is always crucial to understanding the constitution and transformation of our societies past and present This volume will serve as a guide and establish new analytic frameworks for scholars students policymakers journalists and activists alike Genocide Matters Joyce Apsel,Ernesto Verdeja,2013-08-21 This edited book provides an interdisciplinary overview of recent scholarship in the field of genocide studies The book examines four main areas The current state of research on genocide New thinking on the categories and methods of mass violence Developments in teaching about genocide Critical analyses of military humanitarian interventions and post violence justice and reconciliation The combination of critical scholarship and innovative approaches to familiar subjects makes this essential reading for all students and scholars in the field of genocide studies Theatre and the Israel-Palestine Conflict Azza Harras,2025-02-20 This book delves into the complex narratives surrounding the ongoing Israeli Palestinian dispute through the unique lens of theatre This ground breaking exploration employs postcolonial theory to analyze a diverse array of theatrical works by Israeli Palestinian and Western playwrights By juxtaposing portrayals of significant events such as the Nakba or the Israeli War of Independence the Intifadas and the experiences of diaspora and exile Harras provides a nuanced examination of how these events are represented on stage The book reveals the profound impact of language in constructing and contesting historical narratives and underscores theatre s role as a space for cultural critique and self reflection This comprehensive study offers new insights into the power of artistic expression to challenge historical dichotomies and encourage a deeper understanding of this enduring conflict Essential for scholars of Postcolonial Studies Middle East Studies and the Performing Arts this work invites readers to reconsider the conflict through the transformative lens of theatre Memory Fragmentation from Below and Beyond the State Anne Bazin,Emmanuelle Hébert,Valérie Rosoux,Eric Sangar,2023-05-22 This volume suggests a model of collective memory that distinguishes between two conceptual logics of memory fragmentation vertical fragmentation and horizontal fragmentation It offers a series of case studies of conflict and post conflict collective memory shedding light on the ways various actors participate in the production dissemination and contestation of memory discourses With attention to the characteristics of both vertical and horizontal memory fragmentation the book addresses the plurality of diverging and often conflicting memory discourses that are produced within the public sphere of a given community It analyzes the juxtaposition tensions and interactions between narratives produced beyond or below the central state often transcending national boundaries The book is structured according to the type of actors involved in a memory fragmentation process It explores how states have been trying to produce and impose memory discourses on civil societies sometimes even against the experiences of their own citizens and how such efforts as well as backlash from actors below and beyond the state have led to horizontal and vertical memory fragmentation Furthermore it considers the attempts by states representatives to reassert control of national memory discourses and the subsequent resistances they face As such this volume will appeal to sociology and political science scholars interested in memory studies in post conflict societies Collective Memory and National Membership Meral Ugur Cinar,2015-02-04 This study seeks to explain the impact of historical narratives on the inclusiveness and pluralism of citizenship models Drawing on comparative historical analysis of two post imperial core countries Turkey and Austria it explores how narrative forms operate to support or constrain citizenship models Orhan Pamuk and the Good of World Literature Gloria Fisk,2018-02-13 When Orhan Pamuk won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2006 he was honored as a builder of bridges across a dangerous chasm By rendering his Turkish characters and settings familiar where they would otherwise seem troublingly foreign and by speaking freely against his authoritarian state he demonstrated a variety of literary greatness that testified also to the good literature can do in the world Gloria Fisk challenges this standard for canonization as world literature by showing how poorly it applies to Pamuk Reading the Turkish novelist as a case study in the ways Western readers expand their reach Fisk traces the terms of his engagement with a literary market dominated by the tastes of its Anglophone publics who received him as a balm for their anxieties about Islamic terrorism and the stratifications of global capitalism Fisk reads Pamuk s post 9 11 novels as they circulated through this audience as rich in cultural capital as it is far flung in the American English that is global capital s lingua franca She launches a polemic against Anglophone readers instrumental use of literature as a source of crosscultural understanding contending that this pervasive way of reading across all manner of borders limits the globality it announces because it serves the interests of the Western cultural and educational institutions that produce it Orhan Pamuk and the Good of World Literature proposes a new way to think about the uneven processes of translation circulation and judgment that carry contemporary literature to its readers wherever they live Truth, Denial and Transition Cheryl Lawther, 2018-10-08 Truth Denial and Transition Northern Ireland and the Contested Past makes a unique and timely contribution to the transitional justice field In contrast to the focus on truth and those societies where truth recovery has been central to dealing with the aftermath of human rights violations comparatively little scholarly attention has been paid to those jurisdictions whose transition from violent conflict has been marked by the absence or rejection of a formal truth process This book draws upon the case study of Northern Ireland where despite a lengthy debate the question of establishing a formal truth recovery process remains hotly contested The strongest and most vocal opposition has been from unionist political elites loyalist ex combatants and members of the security forces Based on empirical research their opposition is unpicked and interrogated at length throughout this book Critically exploring notions of national imagination and blamelessness the politics of victimhood and the tension between traditions of sacrifice and the fear of betrayal this book is the first substantive effort to concentrate on the opponents of truth recovery rather than its advocates This book will interest those studying truth processes and transitional justice in the fields of Law Politics and Criminology Secular State and Religious Society B. Turam, 2011-12-15 On the basis of original empirically rich and theoretically sound social research the chapters in this volume reveal and analyze the complex relations between the secular government of Turkey and the religious persons and society within the Turkish state The Transgenerational Consequences of the Armenian Genocide Anthonie Holslag, 2018-03-22 This book brings together the Armenian Genocide process and its transgenerational outcome which are often juxtaposed in existing scholarship to ask how the Armenian Genocide is conceptualized and placed within diasporic communities Taking a dual approach to answer this question Anthonie Holslag studies the cultural expression of violence during the genocidal process itself and in the aftermath for the victims By using this approach this book allows us to see comparatively how genocide in diasporic communities in the Netherlands London and the US is encapsulated in an historic narrative It paints a picture of the complexity of genocidal violence itself but also in its transgenerational and non spatial consequences raising new questions of how violence can be perpetuated or interlocked with the discourse and narratives of the victims and how the violence can be relived
