WOMEN WHO BROKE THE RULES

celebrates the bold and brave women who have forged their own paths—breaking rules along the way—to help shape our country's past, present, and future.

Mary Todd Lincoln's unique and determined personality made her one of the most memorable First Ladies. She was smart, witty, and highly educated, even though that wasn't the standard for women in her time. Although she was born and raised in the South, she opposed slavery and supported her husband's quest to save the Union. No matter what criticism or personal hardships she faced, including witnessing her husband's assassination, she remained steadfastly loyal to her country.

Acclaimed biographer and award-winning author Kathleen Krull and illustrator Elizabeth Baddeley bring Mary Todd Lincoln's extraordinary and rule-breaking story to life in this engaging biography.
