Media, Terrorism and Society Shahira S. Fahmy, 2020-05-21 This book provides new insights on contemporary terrorism and media research opening the door for fresh perspectives and trends exploring theories and concepts in the field Advances in technology have increased the threat of terrorism as the Internet has helped terrorists to recruit new members plan their attacks and amplify their messages As technology continues to evolve it is not difficult to imagine how the advanced information and technology of the new millennium could cause more terrifying realities in the world today During this period of profound technological change we need to understand the relationships between media society and the new paradigm of terrorism In our global society where the war on terrorism knows no borders countries are increasingly recognizing the importance of improving terrorism coverage domestically and globally This book is a valuable resource offering key directions for assessing the ongoing revolutionary changes and trends in communicating terrorism in the digital age This book was originally published as a special issue of Mass Communication and Society

Corpus-Assisted Discourse Studies on the Iraq Conflict John Morley, Paul Bayley, 2011-01-13 This volume seeks to illustrate the fundamental role of language in political action focusing on the war in Iraq It combines quantitative methods based on a sophisticated modular corpus that was queried through special software with the aim of identifying regularly occurring lexical and semantic patterns with classical discourse analysis which seeks to investigate naturally occurring language in the context in which it is produced Interpreting the field of politics quite widely to include news reporting and a quasi judicial inquiry into the behavior of politicians and journalists discourses in the USA and the UK are considered The central purpose of the volume is to gain insights not just into language and the ways in which we can investigate it through a corpus but also into the ways in which political action is realized through discourse

Thackeray in Time Richard Salmon, Alice Crossley, 2016-05-12 An intense fascination with the experience of time has long been recognised as a distinctive feature of the writing of William Makepeace Thackeray 1811-1863 This collection of essays however represents the first sustained critical examination of Thackeray's time consciousness in all its varied manifestations Encompassing the full chronological span of the author's career and a wide range of literary forms and genres in which he worked Thackeray in Time repositions Thackeray's temporal and historical self consciousness in relation to the broader socio cultural contexts of Victorian modernity The first part of the collection focusses on some of the characteristic temporal modes of professional authorship and print culture in the mid nineteenth century including periodical journalism and the Christmas book market Secondly the volume offers fresh approaches to Thackeray's acknowledged status as a major exponent of historical fiction reconsidering questions of historiography and the representation of place in such novels as Vanity Fair and Henry Esmond The final part of the collection develops the central Thackerayan theme of memory within four very different but complementary contexts Thackeray's absorption by memories of childhood in later life leads on to his own subsequent memorialisation by familial descendants and to the potential of digital technology for preserving and enhancing Thackeray's print archive in the future and finally to the critical legacy perpetuated by generations of literary scholars since his death

Planning for Conflict in the Twenty-First Century Brian Hanley, 2007-11-30 This book aims to serve the military profession and so the national interest by helping to generate intelligent reform of how the armed forces train educate and promote officers who shape our military strategy and write our war plans Readers will discover the professional and intellectual improvement that wide reading in the masters of historical narrative offers to them The first chapter Lessons Not Learned surveys our strategic documents and their recent applications and offers criticism and recommendations The second chapter Transformation Ballyhoo evaluates our current efforts at military transformation and offers an alternative approach to rehabilitating our armed forces The third chapter The Brain of An Army offers ideas on building a first rate Joint War College Chapters four through six focus on military campaigns France 1940 Stalingrad North Africa 1940-43 The theme is that moral and intellectual qualities determine the fate of armies in war and that material and bureaucratic machinery are not nearly so vital as we seem to think nowadays

Guns and College Homicide Stephen K. Boss, 2019-01-28 At a time when mass shootings in schools and other public spaces have become commonplace it might seem surprising that American college campuses are not magnets for murderers but sanctuaries from them Because of remarkably effective gun safe policies deaths by firearms on college campuses are 1 000 times less frequent than in the U S public at large Drawing on crime data submitted in compliance with the Clery Act and public reports of those crimes this study inventories every documented homicide at a U S college or university between 2001 and 2016 making a compelling argument for using gun safe campuses as guides for broader public safety      Serials in the British Library

Treaty on European Union TEU provides that the EU will accede to the system of human rights protection of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR Protocol No 9 in the Treaty of Lisbon opens the way for accession This represents a major change in the relationship between two organisations that have co operated closely in the past though the ECHR has hitherto exercised only an indirect constitutional control over the EU legal order through scrutiny of EU Member States The accession of the EU to the ECHR is expected to put an end to the informal dialogue and allegedly also competition between the two regimes in Europe and to establish formal both normative and institutional hierarchies In this new era some old problems will be solved and new ones will appear Questions of autonomy and independence of attribution and allocation of responsibility of co operation and legal pluralism will all arise with consequences for the protection of human rights in Europe This book seeks to understand how relations between the two organisations are likely to evolve after accession and whether this new model will bring more coherence in European human rights protection The book analyses from several different yet interconnected points of view and relevant practice the draft Accession Agreement shedding light on future developments in the ECHR and beyond Contributions in the book span classic public international law EU law and the law of the ECHR and are written by a mix of legal and non legal experts from academia and practice      Army History ,2010

Undoing Manifest Destiny L. Daniel Hawk,2026-02-03 Reckoning with the Colonial Past to Bring Justice to the Present As White settlers spread across North America they crafted and enacted an epic story of their God given dominion over the land over Indigenous nations and over the future Their narrative constructed a myth of innocence that justified a massive program of violence and dispossession by suppressing a darker history That history still reverberates today from settler America s relations with the Indigenous nations of the United States to ways the land has been commodified as property It s time for the whole truth to be told In Undoing Manifest Destiny L Daniel Hawk exposes the belief systems and practices that settlers developed to justify the displacement destruction and cultural erasure of Indigenous peoples beginning in the early American colonial period and extending to the present day Writing as the descendant of White settlers and as a biblical scholar he challenges settler Christians to uncover what the settler narrative denies and to work toward addressing historic injustices In this book Hawk combines settler colonial theory historical analysis and Christian theology to examine how settler America sought to erase Indigenous presence from lands taken by the United States and its colonial predecessors offers a decolonizing perspective that challenges the church to acknowledge its complicity with the colonial project and to enter into dialogue directed toward setting things right and highlights contemporary manifestations of colonialism in US interactions with its Indigenous citizens demonstrating that past issues are still present and need to be addressed today Hawk asserts that Christians were complicit with programs of erasure and so Christians are called to confront and heal their residue today Joining historical research with theology and biblical scholarship Hawk helps us recognize the myths that shape the American imagination and to engage our faith for a better way forward This book is an invaluable resource for scholars educators students and readers invested in areas such as post and de colonial studies race and ethnicity United States history and social justice Deepen your understanding of history confront unsettling truths and work toward justice and healing with Undoing Manifest Destiny

Douglas Snelling Davina Jackson, 2016-12-01 Douglas Burrage Snelling 1916-85 was one of Britain's significant emigré architects and designers Born in Kent and educated in New Zealand he became one of Australia's leading mid century architects of luxury residences and commercial buildings and a trend setting designer of furniture interiors and landscapes This is the first comprehensive study of Snelling's pan Pacific life works and trans disciplinary significance It provides a critical examination of this controversial modernist revealing him to be a colourful and talented protagonist who led antipodean interpretations of American especially Wrightian and southern Californian architecture design and lifestyle innovations
