Children's TV and Digital Media in the Arab World Naomi Sakr, Jeanette Steemers, 2017-03-30 Who analyses children's screen content and media use in Arab countries and with what results Children defined internationally as under 18s account for some 40 per cent of Arab populations and the proportion of under fives is correspondingly large Yet studies of children's media and child audiences in the region are as scarce as truly popular locally produced media content aimed at children At the very time when conflict and uncertainty in key Arab countries have made local development and diversification of children's media more remote it has become more urgent to gain a better understanding of how the next generation's identities and worldviews are formed This interdisciplinary book is the first in English to probe both the state of Arab screen media for children and the practices of Arabic speaking children in producing as well as consuming screen content It responds to the gap in research by bringing together a holistic investigation of institutions and leading players children's media experiences and some iconic media texts With children's media increasingly linked to merchandising which favours US based global players and globalizing forces this volume provides a timely insight into tensions between differing concepts of childhood and desirable media messages

Musical Childhoods of Asia and the Pacific Chee-Hoo Lum, Peter Whiteman, 2012-06-01 Musical Childhoods of Asia and the Pacific agglomerates stories of young children's music and musicking from around Southeast Asia and the Pacific A collection of truly unique traditions are interrogated through a variety of contemporary methodologies Readers are privileged to hear about children's musical worlds from children mothers musical worlds from mothers a struggle to engage with music in a closed society and new gender politics among other stories Researchers share experiences and insights gained from applying their chosen methodologies and add to the debate that shapes the continually transforming domain of music education research Musical Childhoods builds on the diverse inquiry presented in the first three volumes in the series This volume is an important addition to the libraries of colleges of education and schools of music as well as music scholars and educators researchers and graduate students who are concerned with advancing both the scope and quality of research in the study of music teaching and learning ACCESS to School ACCESS, 2016-05-10 Education Begins Before School In this book you will read about immigrant parents seeking a better life for their children with help from American educators This is the first book in The Bib to Backpack Learning Series focusing on a program called ACCESS to School in Detroit Michigan ACCESS and the other learning communities hope readers will learn from their accomplishments then will use some of these ideas to shape their own programs This book describes challenges faced in initial development of the program curriculum tips for community leaders and responses from parents and children Newsweek, 2009 Islamic Horizons, 1997
