Citizenship, Belonging, and Nation-States in the Twenty-First Century Nicole Stokes-DuPass, Ramona Fruja, 2017-07-15
Citizenship Belonging and Nation States in the Twenty First Century contributes to the scholarship on citizenship and integration by examining belonging in an array of national settings and by demonstrating how nation states continue to matter in citizenship analysis Citizenship policies are positioned as state mechanisms that actively shape the integration outcomes and experiences of belonging for all who reside within the nation state This edited volume contributes an alternative to the promotion of post national models of membership and emphasizes that the most fundamental facet of citizenship a status of recognition in relationship to a nation state need not be left in the relic galleries of an allegedly outdated political past This collection offers a timely contribution both theoretical and empirical to understanding citizenship nationalism and belonging in contexts that feature not only rapid change but also levels of entrenchment in ideological and historical legacies

National Identity and State Formation in Africa Manuel Castells, Bernard Lategan, 2021-03-16 This book examines how the interplay between globalization and the assertion of local identities is reshaping the political landscape of Africa While defending their values against external forces people simultaneously and paradoxically use the interconnectivity of global networks to maximize their particular interests Focusing on the relation between national identity and state formation the authors explore the far reaching consequences of these contradictory dynamics Although Africa shares many common trends with other parts of the world it also displays distinctive features A region characterized by the increased mobility of people goods and ideas challenges some conventional assumptions of statecraft and also highlights the advantages of federalism not merely as a constitutional option but as a pragmatic device for managing diversity and holding fragile states together The book further explores emerging types of state formation in the same political space as exemplified by the combination of elements of a kingdom an independent state and a national power base in the province of KwaZulu Natal and the careful crafting of an alternative state within a state by the Solidarity Movement in South Africa Informed by examples and case studies drawn from different parts of Africa this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Africa politics sociology media studies and the social sciences more generally

The ^AReturn of the Native Jan Willem Duyvendak, Josip Kesic, 2022-11-04 In The Return of the Native Jan Willem Duyvendak and Josip Kesic explore how nativist logics have infiltrated liberal settings and discourses primarily in the Netherlands as well as other countries with strong liberal traditions like the US and France They deconstruct and explain the underlying logic of nativist narratives and show how these narratives are emerging in the discourses of secularism racism populism and left wing politics By moving systematically through these key iterations of nativism Duyvendak and Kesic show how liberal ideas themselves are becoming tools for claiming that some people do not belong to the nation

Immigration and Membership Politics in Western Europe Sara Wallace Goodman, 2014-10-16 This book examines why Western European states have recently introduced citizenship tests integration courses contracts and oath ceremonies These requirements are perceived as instruments of civic integration to enable immigrants to be better participants in society and the labor market However are all states introducing these requirements for the same reason

Muslim and Catholic Experiences of National Belonging in France Carol A. Ferrara,2024-09-05 How do experiences of national identity and belonging differ for French Muslims and Catholics respectively What can these differences tell us about the causes and dynamics of minority marginalization in plural secular societies To address these questions Carol Ferrara draws upon extensive ethnographic fieldwork across France within spaces of religious education and interfaith dialogue illustrating the inequities between Muslim and Catholic citizens in opportunities for national belonging political and civic engagement and institution building This reexamination of Muslim exclusion against the backdrop of Catholic inclusion calls into question popular explanations for minority marginalization especially those that blame non adherence to French Republican principles or the exclusionary power of secular discourse Instead Ferrara argues that the boundaries of French belonging are policed by francit a tacit national imaginary ideal type that draws upon and reproduces national cognitive biases and undermines the French republican values of secularism equality liberty and fraternity Given the central role of francit in the politics of belonging Ferrara suggests that paths toward greater pluralism in France and beyond lie in the reframing of national identity narratives and reimagining the inclusive potential of secular democratic values

Global South Asia Madhurima Chakraborty,2021-12-30 This book collects essays that take on the excavatory critical and generative work of rethinking the relationship between South Asia and the world In examining what kind of new relationships are uncovered between these two geopolitical groupings the chapters in this book argue that South Asian literature and literary criticism can reframe the common narrative of the powerful Global North and a disenfranchised Global South This is not always a comforting reframing since it must account for the oppressive roles that South Asian nations sometimes play in regional and intranational theatres Through myriad disciplinary groundings theoretical approaches and objects of study the essays in this book collectively argue that South Asian literature allows us to think more critically about both the liberatory possibilities of South Asia as a grouping of nations but also of ideas and aesthetics as well as the elisions that may happen under such categorization The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the South Asia Review

Citizenship, Political Engagement, and Belonging Deborah Reed-Danahay,Caroline Brettell,2008 Bringing together a transcontinental group of anthropologists this book provides an in depth look at the current processes of immigration political behavior and citizenship in both the United States and Europe Essays draw on issues of race national identity religion and more while addressing questions including How should citizenship be defined In what ways do immigrants use the political process to achieve group aims And how do adults and youth learn to become active participants in the public sphere
