Online Coming Out Behind Badge History:

Coming Out Queer Online Patrick M. Johnson, 2020-08-03 The Digital Closet LGBT Q Identities and Affective Politics in a Social Media Age discusses how LGBT Q individuals occupy a precarious space within society as a marginalized community in the United States They are afforded representation in some venues yet are often invisible Through social media LGBT Q individuals have sought new ways to forge communities and increase their visibility This rise in visibility afforded individuals means to seek out and distribute information to help in the coming out process Combining archival research observation interviews and visual discourse analysis of social media feeds the Patrick Johnson examines the role social media plays in expressions of LGBT Q politics culture and coming out Despite the messages not having changed fundamentally the improved access to LGBT Q stories have amplified the ones that are sent Johnson argues that this is positive in acting as intervention for LGBT Q suicide rates hate crimes and discrimination from the outside However the author also contends that it has vastly re centered and prioritized white cisgender masculinity obscuring other stories and creating potentially dangerous environments for POC women trans individuals and gay men who do not meet this high standard of masculinity Scholars of gender studies media studies and queer theory will find this book particularly interesting No specimen left behind: mass digitization of natural history collections Vincent Smith, 2012-07-20 Centuries of exploration and discovery have documented the diversity of life on Earth Records of this biodiversity are for the most part distributed across varied and distinct natural history collections worldwide This makes the task of extracting and mobilising the information within these collections an immense challenge In this special issue of ZooKeys 18 papers by 81 authors examine progress and prospects for mass digitising entire natural history collections These papers provide a snapshot of activity in what is a fast moving field that is seeing ever increasing degrees of collaboration across disciplines and between collection based institutions Examples of research covered by these articles include a description to efforts digitise 30 million plant invertebrate and vertebrate specimens at NCB Naturalis in the Netherlands new scanning and telemicroscopy solutions to digitise the millions of pinned insect specimens held in the Australian National Insect Collection and its European and North American counterparts citizen science projects being used to crowdsource the transcription of thousands of specimen labels and field notebooks and new data portals providing central access to millions of biological specimens across Europe Many of these projects deal with the unique challenges associated with major collections that have built up over several centuries with different communities of practices and different user communities Despite many differences standards for collection acquisition preservation and documentation are broadly consistent meaning that there is sufficient common ground to bring together the enormous amounts of data that are being exposed through mass digitisation efforts These data will become the new frontier for natural history collection management and research in the next decade Global Trends in Law Enforcement Nikolaos Stamatakis, 2024-02-21 Global Trends in Law Enforcement Theory and Practice is a thought provoking collection of studies that define contemporary policing on a global scale As the world becomes increasingly interconnected law enforcement agencies face unprecedented challenges from rapidly advancing technology to the complexities of transnational crime This comprehensive volume brings together diverse perspectives from leading scholars and practitioners offering a rich tapestry of insights that illuminate the evolving landscape of law enforcement The present book is an indispensable resource for academics practitioners policymakers and students seeking a deep understanding of the rapidly evolving world of law enforcement As a definitive guide to global trends Global Trends in Law Enforcement Theory and Practice paves the way for a new era of informed and effective policing in an interconnected world

Unique Origin of All 31 Nhl Team Names, Logos and Colors Tom Waters, 2021-04-11 This is a short report of how every team in the National Hockey League got its name logo and club colors We focus on how unique each of the 31 teams names logos and colors are without comparing each to the others We also try to point out how the teams uniquely reflect the city or locale where they play Many of these team names logos and colors also refer to folk legends untamed animals military connections social issues at the time or were just developed through word of mouth The primary color of most teams is clearly known but not all the secondary colors Some of these teams have used other logos and sets of colors in the past but this report focuses mainly on the present Each team is listed according to how long they have played in their present location The year they each started play there is listed to the right of the team name
