Turn any student into a bookworm with a few easy and practical strategies Donalyn Miller says she has yet to meet a child she can't turn into a reader No matter how far behind Miller's students might be when they reach her 6th grade classroom they end up reading an average of 40 to 50 books a year Miller's unconventional approach dispenses with drills and worksheets that make reading a chore Instead she helps students navigate the world of literature and gives them time to read books they pick out themselves Her love of books and teaching is both infectious and inspiring In the book you'll find Hands on strategies for managing and improving your own school library Tactics for helping students walk on their own two feet and continue the reading habit after they've finished with your class Data from student surveys and end of year feedback that proves how well the Miller Method works The Book Whisperer includes a dynamite list of recommended kid lit that helps parents and teachers find the books that students really like to read Give Me Your Answer True Suanne Laqueur, 2015-06-20

What I feel has no name Suanne Laqueur's award winning debut novel The Man I Love thrilled readers with its memorable characters and depth of emotion Erik Fiskare's journey of love recovery and forgiveness captivated hearts but also left questions unanswered Now Daisy Bianco has a chance to tell her story It's been three years since a single lapse of judgment cost Daisy the love of her life Erik was a conduit to her soul but now he's chosen a path of total disconnection refusing to speak to her or acknowledge her betrayal Alone and shattered Daisy attempts to take responsibility for her actions while building her career as a professional dancer in New York City But Erik's unforgiving estrangement proves too much for her strength Plagued by flashbacks to the Lancaster shootings she falls into a dangerous spiral of self harm cutting into her own skin as a means to atone Only the timely appearance of an old friend John Opie Quillis saves her from self destruction and gives her a chance to love again Laqueur skillfully weaves flashbacks to the college years with Daisy's present life Supported by John's patient affection she works to separate her evolution as an adult from the unresolved guilt and grief of her youth As her professional accomplishments lift her out of depression Daisy learns to hold onto her accountability without letting it become her identity Years pass and she builds a beautiful life filled with dance and friends Lovers come and eventually go leaving her on her own with the old thought Come back to me In this parallel narrative Laqueur peels open the beloved characters from The Man I Love to reveal new and complex layers of vulnerability The scars from the shooting are deep and pervasive within this circle of friends Like Daisy they are trying to evolve without being fully resolved But when questions from the past go unheeded you alone must find and give your answers true LifeCrafting
