Native American Stories Joseph Bruchac,1991 A collection of Native American tales and myths focusing on the relationship between man and nature LeAnne Howe at the Intersections of Southern and Native American Literature Kirstin L. Squint,2018-05-18 With the publication of her first novel Shell Shaker 2001 Choctaw writer LeAnne Howe quickly emerged as a crucial voice in twenty first century American literature Her innovative award winning works of fiction poetry drama and criticism capture the complexities of Native American life and interrogate histories of both cultural and linguistic oppression throughout the United States In the first monograph to consider Howe s entire body of work LeAnne Howe at the Intersections of Southern and Native American Literature Kirstin L Squint expands contemporary scholarship on Howe by examining her nuanced portrayal of Choctaw history and culture as modes of expression Squint shows that Howe s writings engage with Native southern and global networks by probing regional identity gender power authenticity and performance from a distinctly Choctaw perspective a method of discourse which Howe terms Choctalking Drawing on interdisciplinary methodologies and theories Squint complicates prevailing models of the Native South by proposing the concept of the Interstate South a space in which Native Americans travel physically and metaphorically between tribal national and U S boundaries Squint considers Howe s engagement with these interconnected spaces and cultures as well as how indigeneity can circulate throughout them This important critical work which includes an appendix with a previously unpublished interview with Howe contributes to ongoing conversations about the Native South positioning Howe as a pivotal creative force operating at under examined points of contact between Native American and southern literature Native American Literature ,2000 In His Own Voice. Hans-Martin Braun,1987 Blue Dawn, Red Earth Clifford E. In recent decades Native American literature has experienced a resurgence in prominence and popularity Beginning with the 1969 publication of N Scott Momaday s Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn and continuing with the work of Paula Gunn Allen Linda Hogan Louise Erdrich and Craig Lesley American Indian writers have become an increasingly visible part of the literary landscape In this collection of thirty varied and powerful short stories almost all being published here for the first time emerging talents carry on the tradition of their storytelling ancestors Deep Waters Christopher B. Teuton,2010-11 Weaving connections between indigenous modes of oral storytelling visual depiction and contemporary

American Indian literature Deep Waters demonstrates the continuing relationship between traditional and contemporary Native American systems of creative representation and signification Christopher B Teuton begins with a study of Mesoamerican writings Dine sand paintings and Haudenosaunee wampum belts He proposes a theory of how and why indigenous oral and graphic means of recording thought are interdependent their functions and purposes determined by social political and cultural contexts The center of this book examines four key works of contemporary American Indian literature by N Scott Momaday Gerald Vizenor Ray A Young Bear and Robert J Conley Through a textually grounded exploration of what Teuton calls the oral impulse the graphic impulse and the critical impulse we see how and why various types of contemporary Native literary production are interrelated and draw upon long standing indigenous methods of creative representation Teuton breaks down the disabling binary of orality and literacy offering readers a cogent historically informed theory of indigenous textuality that allows for deeper readings of Native American cultural and literary expression
