Nato In Afghanistan The Liberal Disconnect:

NATO in Afghanistan Sten Rynning, 2012-09-26 The war in Afghanistan has run for more than a decade and NATO has become increasingly central to it In this book Sten Rynning examines NATO s role in the campaign and the difficult diplomacy involved in fighting a war by alliance He explores the history of the war and its changing momentum and explains how NATO at first faltered but then improved its operations to become a critical enabler for the U S surge of 2009 However he also uncovers a serious and enduring problem for NATO in the shape of a disconnect between high liberal hopes for the new Afghanistan and a lack of realism about the military campaign prosecuted to bring it about He concludes that while NATO has made it to the point in Afghanistan where the war no longer has the potential to break it the alliance is at the same time losing its own struggle to define itself as a vigorous and relevant entity on the world stage To move forward he argues NATO allies must recover their common purpose as a Western alliance and he outlines options for change Military Review ,2013 Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2013 Political Rationale and International Consequences of the War in Libya Dag Henriksen, Ann Karin Larssen, 2016-04-15 Political Rationale and International Consequences of the War in Libya focuses on the international intervention in Libya in 2011 and tries to answer two broad questions 1 What was the political rationale for the various actors to proceed as they did in the lead up and conduct of the military intervention in Libya 2 What are the consequences of the UN authorized military intervention in Libya R2P was the public raison d tre of the war and an important legitimizing factor of the intervention Still the humanitarian situation was a necessary but not in and by itself an adequate precondition for intervention A number of factors coalesced to enable the intervention While the humanitarian situation triggered the intervention in reality a variety of national interests governed the approach by the various international actors and more often than not these motives were not rooted in the particular circumstances in Libya The book offers a combination of unique perspectives While the perspectives of the US France and the UK on the Libyan Crisis War have been well documented the Arabic and Scandinavian political and military dynamics have been much less so While the perspectives of NATO the UN and R2P have been debated the view from the Arab League and African Union AU have been less in focus The volume redresses that imbalance and offers the most broad ranging analysis yet of a key moment in recent international relations NATO's Democratic Retrenchment Henrik B.L. Larsen, 2019-07-02 Exploring NATO s post Cold War determination to support democracy abroad this book addresses the alliance s adaptation to the new illiberal backlashes in Eastern Europe the Western Balkans and Afghanistan after the alleged return of history The book engages the question of what has driven NATO to pursue democratisation in face of the significant region specific challenges and what can explain policy expansion or retrenchment over time Explaining NATO s adaptation from the perspective of power dynamics that push for international change and historical experience that informs grand strategy allows wider inferences not only about democratisation as a foreign policy strategy but also about the nature of the transatlantic alliance and its relations with a mostly illiberal environment Larsen offers a theoretical conception of NATO as a patchwork of one hegemonic and several great power interests that converge or diverge in the formulation of common policy as opposed to NATO as a community of universal values This volume will appeal to researchers of transatlantic relations NATO s functional and geographical expansion hegemony and great power politics democracy promotion lessons of the past Neoclassical Realism alliance theory and the crisis of the liberal world order No Moment of Victory Craig C.

Felker,Martin Loicano,2021 No Moment of Victory examines NATO coalition efforts to build Afghan Army and police forces with the objective of transitioning the war to Afghan control The NATO Training Mission Afghanistan NTM A grew from a handful of senior officers and enlisted personnel to over 6 000 coalition members training Afghans across the country Yet there was also a deep historical underpinning to the command s programs and processes This book examines the influence of Cold War modernization theory on NTM A from 2009 to 2011 and offers a cautionary account of the limits of Western military practices and culture in security force assistance The Good War M. Saideman,2024-11-01 Modern warfare is almost always multilateral to one degree or another requiring countries to cooperate as allies or coalition partners Yet as the war in Afghanistan has made abundantly clear multilateral cooperation is neither straightforward nor guaranteed Countries differ significantly in what they are willing to do and how and where they are willing to do it Some refuse to participate in dangerous or offensive missions Others change tactical objectives with each new commander Some countries defer to their commanders while others hold them to strict account NATO in Afghanistan explores how government structures and party politics in NATO countries shape how battles are waged in the field Drawing on more than 250 interviews with senior officials from around the world David Auerswald and Stephen Saideman find that domestic constraints in presidential and single party parliamentary systems in countries such as the United States and Britain respectively differ from those in countries with coalition governments such as Germany and the Netherlands As a result different countries craft different guidelines for their forces overseas most notably in the form of military caveats the often controversial limits placed on deployed troops Providing critical insights into the realities of alliance and coalition warfare NATO in Afghanistan also looks at non NATO partners such as Australia and assesses NATO s performance in the 2011 Libyan campaign to show how these domestic political dynamics are by no means unique to Afghanistan Coalition Challenges in Afghanistan Gale Mattox,Stephen Grenier,2015-12-02 This book examines the experiences of a range of countries in the conflict in Afghanistan with particular focus on the demands of operating within a diverse coalition of states After laying out the challenges of the Afghan conflict in terms of objectives strategy and mission case studies of 15 coalition members each written by a country expert discuss each country s motivation for joining the coalition and explore the impact of more than 10 years of combat on each country s military domestic government and populace The book dissects the changes in the coalition over the decade driven by both external factors such as the Bonn Conferences of 2001 and 2011 the contiguous Iraq War and politics and economics at home and internal factors such as command structures interoperability emerging technologies the surge the introduction of counterinsurgency doctrine Green on Blue attacks escalating civilian casualties and the impact of the Provincial Reconstruction Teams and NGOs In their conclusion the editors review the commonality and uniqueness evident in the country cases lay out the lessons learned by NATO and assess the potential for their application in future alliance warfare in the new global order The US and NATO Withdrawal from Afghanistan Musa Khan Jalalzai,2021 Afghanistan and Its Neighbors after the NATO Withdrawal Kirill Nourzhanov,Amin Saikal,2016-03-04 The planned reductions in NATO troop numbers in Afghanistan through 2015 and a final withdrawal at the end of 2016 brings up numerous pressing questions about the security and national interests of not just Afghanistan but of the broader region itself The problem of a chaotic Afghanistan or of an outright Taliban victory is of great concern to not only immediate neighbors such as Iran Pakistan and the former Soviet Central Asian republics to the north but also to those countries in the region with Afghanistan related security or economic concerns such as China and India Further abroad Russian American and European interests and plans for dealing with the fallout from Afghanistan must also be taken into account as these major powers have enduring interests in Afghanistan and the region This volume puts the prospects for short and mid term security dynamics at the core of the analysis with each case being placed in its proper contemporary historical economic and political context The book will offer a truly comprehensive nuanced and timely account of the security situation in and around Afghanistan Afghanistan and Its Neighbors after the NATO Withdrawal Kirill Nourzhanov,Amin Saikal,2016-03-04 The planned reductions in NATO troop numbers in Afghanistan through 2015 and a final withdrawal at the end of 2016 brings up numerous pressing questions about the security and national interests of not just Afghanistan but of the broader region itself The problem of a chaotic Afghanistan or of an outright Taliban victory is of great concern to not only immediate neighbors such as Iran Pakistan and the former Soviet Central Asian republics to the north but
