Natural Rights And The Right To Choose:

Natural Rights and the Right to Choose Hadley Arkes, 2002-09-02 Over the last thirty years the American political class has come to talk itself out of the doctrines of natural rights that formed the main teaching of the American Founders and Abraham Lincoln With that move it has removed the ground for its own rights Ironically this transition has been made without awareness with a serene conviction that constitutional rights are being expanded In the name of privacy and autonomy new claims of liberty have been unfolded all of them bound up in some way with the notion of sexual freedom The right to choose an abortion has been the right to shift the political class from doctrines of natural right This new right overturned the liberal jurisprudence of the New Deal placing jurisprudence on a different foundation If there is a right to abortion it has been detached from the logic of natural rights and stripped of moral substance
