Table Scraps and Other Essays Juyanne James, 2019-12-18 Table Scraps and Other Essays is for all intents and purposes memoir writing. At the heart of the twenty-two true stories is an African American female who as a child along with her siblings must learn the value of hard work as hired hands. James's young spirit is often at odds with her growing family, especially with a father figure who ignores his duties as husband and provider. She has a strong loving mother who insists on keeping the family together. James learns to trust and depend on the guardians of her small Louisiana community: teachers who are eventually forced to move away from the area when the local schools are integrated. Many years later, James returns home figuratively and literally on occasion from the apartment where she lives in New Orleans and reconnects with a father who seeks forgiveness for his earlier betrayal. He spends each day attempting to make up for the ill treatment of his wife and children. In these essays, James shares her love of nature both as a means of escape from her troubled family and as inspiration for her writing.

Representative Men Ralph Waldo Emerson, 2004-09 Purchase one of 1st World Library's Classic Books and help support our free internet library of downloadable eBooks. Visit us online at www.1stWorldLibrary.ORG. IT IS NATURAL to believe in great men. If the companions of our childhood should turn out to be heroes and their condition regal, it would not surprise us. All mythology opens with demigods and the circumstance is high and poetic that is their genius is paramount. In the legends of the Gautama, the first men ate the earth and found it deliciously sweet. Nature seems to exist for the excellent. The world is upheld by the veracity of good men; they make the earth wholesome. They who lived with them found life glad and nutritious. Life is sweet and tolerable only in our belief in such society and actually or ideally we manage to live with superiors. We call our children and our lands by their names. Their names are wrought into the verbs of language; their works and effigies are in our houses and every circumstance of the day recalls an anecdote of them.

Unfolding Consciousness Edi Bilimoria, 2024-03-11 Exploring the Living Universe and Intelligent Powers in Nature and Humans. author Edi Bilimoria heralds the new science of consciousness and offers the readers a roadmap and necessary tools to achieve future growth. Presented in three volumes plus volume IV contains references/resources for further reading; they reveal the unity of the Eastern and Western branches of our perineal wisdom. Bilimoria shows how science seeks truth using a synthesis of both traditions. Evidence from a wide range of sources—scientific, medical, philosophical, religious, and cultural—is put forward to argue the case that humans are spiritual beings.

primarily and not merely complicated biological machines Bilimoria teaches that consciousness is not the product of matter but the primary element from which all else emanates This process and its underlying mechanisms are described in detail with much clarity This work has over 2000 references and is supported by copious tables and diagrams plus individual chapter summaries and sidenotes to assist readers in navigating the multidimensional terrain traversed Key areas The scientific and esoteric worldviews compared and contrasted The ultimate promise of science The soft and hard problems of consciousness How external input to the physical senses results in an internal subjective experience Quantum physics its contribution to a new scientific paradigm The Mystery Teachings of All Ages their worldwide unity and central message Wet computers and computers Is the brain no different in principle from a computer Death and after the transition and continuity of consciousness in other realms Paranormal phenomena and apparitions Subtle bodies Evolution and destiny Powers latent in human beings Divinity and the united message of all world religions The question of immortality The primacy of consciousness and the manner of its unfoldment from the unmanifest realms to the physical world Edi Bilimoria s guest appearance on the Shepherd Walwyn podcast series can be found on this link <https://shepherdwalwyn.com/edi-bilimoria-unfolding-consciousness-why-sapolsky-is-wrong-and-how-to-get-in-tune-with-life/> Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr., Pragmatism and Neuroscience Jay Schulkin, 2019-08-17 This book explores the cultures of philosophy and the law as they interact with neuroscience and biology through the perspective of American jurist Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr and the pragmatist tradition of John Dewey Schulkin proposes that human problem solving and the law are tied to a naturalistic realistic and an anthropological understanding of the human condition The situated character of legal reasoning given its complexity like reasoning in neuroscience can be notoriously fallible Legal and scientific reasoning is to be understood within a broader context in order to emphasize both the continuity and the porous relationship between the two Some facts of neuroscience fit easily into discussions of human experience and the law However it is important not to oversell neuroscience a meeting of law and neuroscience is unlikely to prove persuasive in the courtroom any time soon Nevertheless as knowledge of neuroscience becomes more reliable and more easily accepted by both the larger legislative community and in the wider public through which neuroscience filters into epistemic and judicial reliability the two will ultimately find themselves in front of a judge A pragmatist view of neuroscience will aid and underlie these events EMERSON YEAR BK SELECTIONS FOR Ralph Waldo 1803-1882 Emerson, Amanda R. Narratives of Hope and Despair Johanna M. Wagner, Melanie Duckworth, Deanna Benjamin, 2025-10-14 In narratives of literature and cultural production hope and despair remain fundamental in exploring our world In recent years political polarization the Covid pandemic global warming and new and ongoing wars have contributed to global crises to which despair is an understandable response Yet hope is continually sought and proclaimed By examining tropes of ruin and regeneration in a wide selection of narratives including memoir graphic narratives fiction film art radio plays culture rhetoric and discourse the book uncovers resonances between them The anthology moves from the personal to the collective addressing individual matters of the body and the mind societal visions of utopia and dystopia and finally hope and despair for the earth itself in representations of apocalypse and the Anthropocene This structure alongside the interdisciplinary nature of the project maps dynamic international perspectives in which hope and despair flow across and through personal social and earthly concerns
