

Question 5 :

He reached home with the coins in his pocket. What happened then?

Answer 5 :

When he reached home, the coins started speaking again. During the lunch time, they began screaming. He was so painstakingly fed up that he hurried out of the house barefoot and started running towards the market. Although he was horrified, he asked for a whole rupee worth of jalebis. The halwai opened up the entire newspaper and put a mound of jalebis on it.

Comprehension Check (Page No. 61)

Question 1:

- (i) Why didn't he eat all the jalebis he had bought?
- (ii) What did he do with the remaining jalebis?

Answer 1:

- (i) He did not eat all the jalebis he had bought because he had already eaten so many of them and if anybody would have pressed his stomach a little, the jalebis would have come out of his ears and nostrils.
- (ii) He distributed the left over jalebis to the children who had gathered in the gali where he was eating the jalebis.

Question 2:

"The fear was killing me." What was the fear?

Answer 2:

The fear that he would be caught by his parents and they would find out that he had eaten so many jalebis. He was burping with every breath. And with every burp, there was a danger of jalebis popping. This fear was killing him.

Question 3:

"Children's stomachs are like digestion machines." What do you understand by that? Do you agree?

Answer 3:

This means that children have a strong digestion power. They can digest more than their usual diet. Yes, I do agree with this because children are always involved in different physical activities so are able to digest more than their usual diet.
