Seduction by Contract Oren Bar-Gill, 2012-08-23 Seduction by Contract explains how consumer contracts emerge from market forces and consumer psychology. Consumers' predictable mistakes—they are short-sighted, optimistic, and imperfectly rational—compel sellers to compete by hiding the true costs of products in complex, misleading contracts. Only better law can overcome the market's failure.

Pricing Credit Products Robert L. Phillips, 2018-07-10 In the wake of the 2008 financial crisis, it became apparent that pricing loans in a way that is profitable for lenders and sensitive to risk is anything but simple. Increasingly, lenders are following the lead of other retailers by segmenting their market and more precisely targeting customers. To do this successfully, lenders must engage analytic approaches such as machine learning and optimization in setting prices for each segment. Robert L. Phillips worked with major banks and financial services companies for more than a decade to help them improve their pricing capabilities. This book draws on his experience as well as the latest academic research to demonstrate how lenders can apply the proven techniques of price optimization to responsibly improve the profitability of their loans. It is a go-to resource for academics and professionals alike, particularly lenders who are looking
