To:
Doris Johnson
Human Resource Manager
Optimal Workplace Inc.
321 Employment Avenue
San Jose, CA

Dear Ms. Johnson,

As a highly skilled project manager with 11 years of experience, I am writing to express my interest in the project manager position at your company. My experience aligns well, as I have worked in project management for several years with a premium retailer, and I know I would make a valuable addition to your team.

After working for over a decade in project management, I have advanced knowledge in developing scopes, keeping projects on track, submitting deliverables on time, and ensuring a seamless experience for all parties involved. Moreover, while my previous position afforded me a well-rounded skill set, including excellent relationship building and time management skills, I excel at:

- Outlining project scopes, managing timelines, and deadlines.
- Tracking and reporting on overall progress.
- Managing daily operations and implementation of new programs.
- Forecasting project revenue and ensuring all goals are met.

In addition to my experience and relationship building expertise, I have a solid educational foundation and a passion for nurturing projects that build loyalty and, in turn, drive revenue for your organization. I would much appreciate the opportunity to contribute to your ongoing growth and continued success.

Please review my attached application for additional details regarding my expertise and achievements. Do not hesitate to reach out if you have any questions or need further clarification on my experience. I would love to meet with you and discuss this position in detail.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Nicole Smith

101 Best Cover Letters Jay A. Block, Michael Betrus, 1999-04-22 Beat out the competition for the best jobs Create an image of accomplishment professionalism and competence that today's employers are begging for Job seekers have paid hundreds of dollars for the expertise in these dynamic guides and regarded every cent as well spent With these job landing tools on your desktop you'll have the same savvy working for you for far far less with the same great results 101 Best Resumes packs tried and proven advice you'll use to Create a resume that gets you in the door Target your resume for a specific positions over 70 different categories are covered Experiment with traditional and new formats More 101 Best Cover Letters shows you how to put together compelling letters to accompany your resume Learn how to Ignite interest with the first two sentences Turn references into endorsements Send your cover letter online Pick up smart interviewing tips negotiate a higher salary use the Internet in your job search work with recruiters and much much more How To Write Amazing Cover Letters The Hyperink Team, 2012-02-12 ABOUT THE BOOK If a resume is a window into your past work experience a cover letter is the tool you use to install it Cover letters were once just an after thought something most people used to simply regurgitate their resumes In fact it wasn't until the last decade that cover letters gained wide acceptance and importance Today not only is the cover letter just as important as a resume it can be the deciding factor in whether a hiring manager looks at your resume or throws it in the trash But how do you write the kind of amazing cover letter that will get you in the door How can you create a narrative of your professional experience that makes the HR person sit up and take notice The key is knowing how to present yourself It does not matter if you've spent 30 years in the work force or are just entering it the fact remains that you need to learn to how convince someone else to interview you MEET THE AUTHOR The Hyperink Team works hard to bring you high quality engaging fun content If ever you have any questions about our products or suggestions for how we can make them better please don't hesitate to contact us Happy reading EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You've probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you'd probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don't bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It's always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don't know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it's common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they've learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won't make an impression on the reader Don't just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren't meant as a tool to repeat everything that's in your resume. It's a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you're applying for. Since the last edition of Cover Letters For Dummies, blazing fast change in tools, technology, and how hiring managers come calling, and how we invite them to look us over, means big dramatic changes in our job messages. In this exceptional handbook of contemporary job messages, you'll discover fresh ways of thinking about cover letters that captain an entire team of new style job messages. The Guide to Basic Cover Letter Writing Public Library Association, Editors of VGM, 2003-09-22

A solid, well-written cover letter is crucial to getting a job interview. Written under the auspices of the Job and Career Information Services Committee of the Public Library Association, a group of librarians with many years of collective experience in researching and providing job assistance information, this practical guide provides easy-to-follow instruction in crafting outstanding cover letters for any type of position. Completely updated, it features guidance in job seeking effectively online and the best ways to showcase experience with the latest technologies. Cover Letters that Blow Doors Open Anne McKinney, 1999

Designed as the comprehensive guide to cover letter preparation, the 272-page book shows examples of exciting and door-opening cover letters. The main section of the book shows cover letters by field and industry. For example, job hunters in the accounting field will find examples of cover letters used to blow doors open in the accounting, banking, and financial community. From aviation to computer operations to management to sales to transportation, cover letters tailored to specific fields are illustrated, which can be used as models or templates for those involved in a job hunt. But what if a job hunter is changing careers or doesn't need a cover letter targeting a specific field or functional area? There's a section showing examples of all-purpose cover letters, career change cover letters, cover letters for entrepreneurs, and cover letters for those seeking their first job. For those seeking advice on how to respond to ads, how to handle questions about salary requirements, how to request consideration for multiple job openings in the organization, and how to write letters for special situations, there's a section entitled Sixteen Commonly Asked Questions About Cover Letters and Job Hunting. Step-by-step Cover Letters, 2006
