Pamela Allen Literacy Activities:

Language and Literacy Development in Early Childhood Robyn Ewing, Jon Callow, Kathleen Rushton, 2016-06-02 This book provides pre service and practising teachers with an integrated approach to language and literacy learning in early childhood. Written by leading academics in the field it explores how children learn to talk play using language become literate and make meaning from birth through to the pre school years. Emphasising the importance of imagination and the arts in language learning this book addresses a wide range of contemporary issues highlights the impact of diverse socioeconomic language and cultural backgrounds on young children's language and literacy development and shows how early childhood teachers can effectively partner with parents and caregivers to help children learn through and about language. Case studies interviews reflective questions clear links to the Early Years Learning Framework and the Australian Curriculum and a rich array of practical and creative activities for use in early childhood environments help students connect theory and current research to practice.
