Campbell, Tarun Ramadorai, 2025-10-21 Two leading economists reveal why today s personal finance markets are rigged against us and offer practical steps to fix them We interact with the financial system every day whether taking out or paying off loans making insurance claims or simply depositing money into our bank accounts Fixed exposes how this system has been corrupted to serve the interests of financial services providers and their cleverest customers at the expense of ordinary people John Campbell and Tarun Ramadorai diagnose the ills of today s personal finance markets in the United States and across the globe looking at everything from short term saving and borrowing to loans for education and housing financial products for retirement and insurance They show how the system is fixed to benefit those who are wealthy and more educated while encouraging financial mistakes by those who are aren t making it difficult for regular consumers to make sound financial decisions and disadvantaging them in some of the most consequential economic transactions of their lives Campbell and Ramadorai describe how some even opt out of the financial system altogether relying on unregulated and often shady mechanisms to implement necessary financial functions with dire consequences for individuals families and the economy more broadly With the explosive growth of the global middle class longer lifespans and greater numbers of seniors managing their money alone the pitfalls of personal finance now affect billions of people around the world Fixed proposes concrete solutions that harness the expertise of economists the power of government and the speed of technology to restore fairness and trust in our broken system and make it work better for ordinary people Access to Justice in Rural Communities Daniel Newman, Faith Gordon, 2023-05-04 This book offers insight on access to justice from rural areas in internationally comparable contexts to highlight the diversity of experiences within and across rural areas globally It looks at the fundamental questions for people s lives raised by the issue of access to justice as well as the rule of law It highlights a range of social geographic and cultural issues which impact the way rural communities experience the justice system throughout the world with chapters on Australia Canada England Ireland Kenya Northern Ireland South Africa Syria Turkey the USA and Wales Each chapter explores three questions 1 How do people experience the institutions of justice in rural areas and how does this rural experience differ to an urban experience 2 What impact have changes in policy had on the justice system in rural areas and have rural and urban areas been affected in different ways 3 What impact does the law have on people's lives in rural areas and what would rural communities like to be better understood about their experience of the justice system. By bringing in the voices and experiences of those who are often ignored or sidelined by justice systems, this book will set out an agenda for ensuring social justice in legal systems with a focus on protecting marginalised groups.

This guide will walk you through simple but powerful steps of the Financial Fit program, which will allow you to calculate exactly how much you can afford to spend on college. Find great colleges you can afford. Understand the ins and outs of the financial aid process. Choose the right college and avoid excessive debt. With Right College Right Price, your student will not only have access to a college education but also a life after college without the burden of excessive student loan debt. The Neoliberal Agenda and the Student Debt Crisis in U.S.

Higher Education Nicholas Hartlep, Lucille Eckrich, Brandon Hensley, 2017-05-18. Capturing the voices of Americans living with student debt in the United States, this collection critiques the neoliberal interest-driven debt-based system of U.S. higher education and offers alternatives to neoliberal capitalism and the corporatized university. Grounded in an understanding of the historical and political economic context, this book offers auto-ethnographic experiences of living in debt and analyzes alternatives to the current system. Chapter authors address real questions such as: Do collegians overestimate the economic value of going to college? and How does the monetary system that student loans are part of operate? Pinpointing how developments in the political economy are accountable for students' university experiences, this book provides an authoritative contribution to research in the fields of educational foundations and higher education policy and finance.
