Klein this book draws the outline of a group analytic theory and meta theory by studying the paternal and maternal functions as expressed by the conductor and the group analytic group respectively and extrapolating them to the psychoanalytic aspects of Lacan and the structuralism of Levi Strauss's anthropological views. From this perspective it investigates major group analytic phenomena such as the role of money envy scapegoating and the regular or early ending of group therapy by patients with neurosis and borderline personality disorders. Part of the book is devoted to analyzing how eating disorders or depression in psychosis can be effectively treated and how the defective function of dreaming in psychosis can be reconstituted through group analysis and stresses the need for research into the neural correlations of dreaming.
