International Handbook of Interpretation in Educational Research Paul Smeyers, David Bridges, Nicholas C.

Burbules, Morwenna Griffiths, 2015-01-06 This handbook focuses on the often neglected dimension of interpretation in educational research. It argues that all educational research is in some sense interpretive and that understanding this issue belies some usual dualisms of thought and practice such as the sharp dichotomy between qualitative and quantitative research. Interpretation extends from the very framing of the research task through the sources which constitute the data, the process of their recording, representation and analysis to the way in which the research is finally or provisionally presented. The thesis of the handbook is that interpretation cuts across the fields both philosophically, organizationally and methodologically. By covering a comprehensive range of research approaches and methodologies, the handbook gives early career researchers what they need to know in order to decide what particular methods can offer for various educational research contexts. An extensive overview includes concrete examples of different kinds of research, not limited for example to teaching and learning examples as present in the Anglo-Saxon tradition but including as well what in the German Continental tradition is labelled pädagogisch. Examples from child rearing and other contexts of non-formal education with full description and explanation of why these were chosen in particular circumstances and reflection on the wisdom or otherwise of the choice combined in each case with consideration of the role of interpretation in the process. The handbook includes examples of a large number of methods traditionally classified as qualitative, interpretive and quantitative, used across the area of the study of education. Examples are drawn from across the globe, thus exemplifying the different opportunities and constraints that educational research has to confront in different societies.

South-South Educational Migration, Humanitarianism and Development Elena Fiddian-Qasbiyeh, 2015-01-09 This ground-breaking book is one of the first to analyse the important phenomenon of South-South educational migration for refugees. It focuses particularly on South-South scholarship programmes in Cuba and Libya, which have granted free education to children, adolescents and young adults from two of the world's most protracted refugee situations: Sahrawis and Palestinians. Through in-depth, multi-sited fieldwork conducted with and about Sahrawi and Palestinian refugee students in Cuba and Libya and following their return to the desert-based Sahrawi refugee camps in Algeria and the urban Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon, this highly pertinent study brings refugees' views and voices to the forefront and sheds a unique light on their understandings of self-sufficiency, humanitarianism and hospitality. It critically assesses the impact of diverse policies designed to maximise self-sufficiency and to reduce both brain drain and ongoing dependency upon Northern aid providers, exploring the extent to which South-South scholarship systems have challenged the power imbalances that typically characterise North-to-South development models. Finally, this very timely study discusses the impact of the Arab Spring on Libya's support mechanisms for Sahrawi and Palestinian refugees and considers the changing nature of Cuba's educational model in light of major ongoing political ideological and economic shifts in the island state asking whether there is a future for such alternative programmes and initiatives This book will be a valuable resource for students researchers and practitioners in the areas of migration studies refugee studies comparative education development and humanitarian studies international relations and regional studies Latin America Middle East and North Africa Theresa May, The Hostile Environment and Public Pedagogies of Hate and Threat Mike Cole, 2019-07-01 Theresa May The Hostile Environment and Public Pedagogies of Hate and Threat analyses Theresa May's involvement in the creation and promotion of public pedagogies of hate and threat around the issue of immigration which are used to instil fear stress and anxiety among large sections of the population This book uses public pedagogy as a theoretical lens and examines the economic and political backdrop to the hostile environment before moving on to a consideration of its creation and consolidation by Theresa May as Home Secretary and later as Prime Minister The effects of the hostile environment on health and education are addressed as well as its specific impacts on asylum seekers and women The book also interrogates the Windrush scandal and divided families as well as the author and his family's personal experiences of the hostile environment It concludes by considering the escalation of racism in general the crisis in neoliberalism and the case for a socialist future without borders This topical book will appeal to doctoral postgraduate and advanced undergraduate students in the fields of education studies pedagogy and sociology as well as those interested in UK politics

Composition in the Age of Austerity Nancy Welch, Tony Scott, 2016-04-01 In the face of the gradual saturation of US public education by the logics of neoliberalism educators often find themselves at a loss to respond let alone resist Through state defunding and many other reforms fueled by austerity politics a majority of educators are becoming casual labor in US universities while those who hang onto secure employment are pressed to act as self supporting entrepreneurs or do more with less Focusing on the discipline of writing studies this collection addresses the sense of crisis that many educators experience in this age of austerity The chapters in this book chronicle how neoliberal political economy shapes writing assessments curricula teacher agency program administration and funding distribution Contributors also focus on how neoliberal political economy dictates the direction of scholarship because the economic and political agenda shaping the terms of work the methods of delivery and the ways of valuing and assessing writing also shape the primary concerns and directions of scholarship Composition in the Age of Austerity offers critical accounts of how the restructuring of higher education is shaping the daily realities of composition programs The book documents the effects and implications of the current restructuring examines how cherished rhetorical ideals actually leave the field unprepared to respond effectively to defunding and corporatizing trends and establishes points of departure for collective response

Critical Reflections on the Language of Neoliberalism in Education Spyros Themelis, 2020-12-29 Recognizing the dominance of neoliberal forces in education this volume offers a range of critical essays which analyze the language used to underpin these dynamics Combining essays from over 20 internationally renowned contributors this text offers a critical examination of key terms which have become increasingly central to educational discourse Each essay considers the etymological foundation of each term the context in which they have evolved and likewise their changed meaning In doing so these essays illustrate the transformative potential of language to express or challenge political social and economic ideologies The text s musings on the language of education and its implications for the current and future role of education in society make clear its relevance to today s cultural and political landscape This exploratory monograph will be of interest to doctoral students researchers and scholars with an interest in the philosophy of education educational policy and politics as well as the sociology of education and the impacts of neoliberalism

As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross,E. Doyle Stevick,2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical This book provides exactly that Adoption and impact of OER in the Global South Cheryl Hodgkinson-Williams, Brazil Arinto, 2017-12-29 Education in the Global South faces several key interrelated challenges for which Open Educational Resources OER are seen to be part of the solution These challenges include unequal access to education variable quality of educational resources teaching and student performance and increasing cost and concern about the sustainability of education The Research on Open Educational Resources for Development ROER4D project seeks to build on and contribute to the body of research on how OER can help to improve access enhance quality and reduce the cost of education in the Global South This volume examines aspects of educator and student adoption of OER and engagement in Open Educational Practices OEP in secondary and tertiary education as well as teacher professional development in 21 countries in South America Sub Saharan Africa and South and Southeast Asia The ROER4D studies and syntheses presented here aim to help inform Open Education advocacy policy practice and research in developing countries World Review Marco Rieckmann, Rosalba Thomas Muñoz, 2024-06-21 The global landscape of education has been reshaped by the COVID 19 pandemic revealing the various challenges faced by countries worldwide This book provides a comprehensive exploration of Environmental and Sustainability Education ESE across different countries offering unique insights into their histories challenges achievements and future ESE needs From Africa to Oceania the book delves into the vital role of ESE in the context of the UN Sustainable Development Goals It highlights the diverse national discourses and the flexibility required to deliver effective global education programs ESE practitioners researchers and policymakers worldwide will find inspiration and invaluable perspectives in this book International Perspectives on Inclusion within Society and Education Mabel Ann Brown, 2020-10-01 International Perspectives on Inclusion within Society and Education explores how the theme of inclusion in education and society plays out across different nations and cultures Covering topics like dual citizenship political loyalty and migration it includes important discussions around poverty educational disadvantage youth radicalisation and inequality With perspectives from a wide range of countries including the USA UK Finland Kosovo Albania Poland Lithuania Latvia Hungary the Czech Republic Slovakia and India this book explores how issues of inclusion are often decided by a majority for the majority which can lead to included minorities feeling disadvantaged and paradoxically excluded While setting up a strong case for inclusion in society and education it considers factors such as poverty and mental health both nationally and internationally and evaluates the effectiveness of additional financial resources and educational support in creating an inclusive world This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of comparative education inclusive education sociology political sciences and social work Everyday Postsocialism in Eastern Europe Jill Massino, Markus Wien, 2024-09-15 The collapse of state socialism ushered in dramatic political and economic change producing new freedoms and opportunities but also new challenges and disappointments Focusing on laborers professionals youth women sexual minorities foreign students and emigrants Everyday Postsocialism in Eastern Europe explores these multifaceted changes and people's varied experiences of them The featured narratives complicate hegemonic representations of transformation revealing ruptures and continuities progress and reversals Highlighting the multi directionality of change over the last thirty years the book reappraises 1989 as an epochal event for all The Teacher Insurgency Leo Casey, 2020-11-24 In The Teacher Insurgency Leo Casey addresses how the unexpected wave of recent teacher strikes has had a dramatic impact on American public education teacher unions and the larger labor movement Casey explains how this uprising was not only born out of opposition to government policies that underfunded public schools and deprofessionalized teaching but was also rooted in deep seated changes in the economic climate social movements and most importantly educational politics With an eye to maintaining the momentum of the insurgency the author examines four key strategic questions that have arisen from the strikes the relationship of mobilization to organizing the relationship between protests and direct action the conditions under which teacher strikes are most likely to be successful and the importance of bargaining for the common good More broadly Casey examines how to organize teachers for collective action focusing on four discourses of teaching teaching as nurturance as professionalism as labor and craft and as a vocation of democratic intellectual work Globalization on the Margins (2nd Edition) Iveta Silova, Sarfaroz Niyozov, 2020-01-01 Reflecting on almost three decades of postsocialist transformations the second edition of Globalization on the Margins explores continuities and changes in Central Asian education development since the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991 with a particular focus on the developments that took place since the production of the first edition in 2011 Rather than viewing these transformations in isolation the authors place their analyses within the global context by reflecting on the interaction between Soviet legacies and global education reform pressures in the Central Asian countries of Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan This new edition in addition to a revised introduction and a newly added conclusion consists of four thematic sections each reflecting a key theme in the educational life of the Central Asian states These thematic sections introduction and conclusion collectively update our understanding of the recent developments and challenges in education of the five Central Asian states They however go beyond mere information update so as to complicate re engage re form and re define the margins taking up margins a conceptual geographic cultural and geo political construct Notwithstanding the diversity of local and international authors variety of theoretical perspectives methodological approaches and conceptual lenses the essays reveal the complexity and uncertainty of the post socialist education transformations Instead of portraying the transition process as the influx of Western ideas into the region Globalization on the Margins provides new lenses to critically examine education as a contested field of diverse perspectives competing forces and multidirectional flow of ideas concepts and reforms in Central Asia ENDORSEMENTS Hindsight famously brings clarity And much of what happened after the fall of the Berlin Wall and the collapse of the Soviet Union has now been correctly deeded over to historians Nonetheless we ignore that history at our peril The contributors to this volume show that carefully textured and historically attuned education research generates deep insights into ongoing transformations and the political cultural social and economic structures relations and practices that do the work of producing margins and centers in the first place Noah W Sobe Loyola University Chicago Globalization on the margins and at the epicentre of the battles of the Great Powers Two excellent educators Sarfaro Niyozov and Iveta Silova compiled a timely and long awaited scholarly work based on empirical research in societies which had similar history close to three decades ago All the contributors are prolific educators who know the education system from within and without who either hailed from the region or have spent a considerable amount of time to know the systems well The book contains remarkable stories of education through the ups and downs of historical evolution It is a must read primer for anyone interested in learning about high quality research in the field of education in Central Asia It is a huge contribution to educational research with an impact on research and teaching for years to come Duishon Shamatov Nazarbayev University Kazakhstan The challenge of moving Central Asia from the borders of the Soviet Empire to the world s center is the focus of the discussions in Globalization on the Margins The transition to the Western models of education was happening in the context of major paradigm shift which entire humanity was experiencing and which could be described as the arrival of the new post industrial civilization During this process Central Asian countries have been pushed to the margins because their contribution to the wealth of the new world know how was much less pronounced than that of their Western neighbours Therefore investment into the research that contributes to local knowledge production seems a natural solution to the problem All the contributors to this book have a vast experience in the region and many of their observations are thought provoking This is a very insightful and much needed book Elena Lenskaya Moscow School of Social and Economic Sciences Russia Globalizing Knowledge Michael D. Kennedy, 2014-12-10 Heralding a push for higher education to adopt a more global perspective the term globalizing knowledge is today a popular catchphrase among academics and their circles The complications and consequences of this desire for greater worldliness however are rarely considered critically In this groundbreaking cultural political sociology of knowledge and change Michael D Kennedy rearticulates questions approaches and case studies to clarify intellectuals and institutions responsibilities in a world defined by transformation and crisis Globalizing Knowledge introduces the stakes of globalizing knowledge before examining how intellectuals and their institutions and networks shape and are shaped by globalization and world historical events from 2001 through the uprisings of 2011 13 But Kennedy is not only concerned with elaborating how wisdom is maintained and transmitted he also asks how we can recognize both interconnectedness and inequalities and possibilities for more knowledgeable change within and beyond academic circles Subsequent chapters are devoted to issues of public engagement the importance of recognizing difference and the local s implication in the global and the specific ways in which knowledge images and symbols are shared globally Kennedy considers numerous case studies from historical happenings in Poland Kosova Ukraine and Afghanistan to today s energy crisis Pussy Riot the Occupy Movement and beyond to illuminate how knowledge functions and might be used to affect good in the world Perspectives ,2003 On Class, Race, and Educational Reform Antonia Darder,Cleveland Hayes II,Howard Ryan,2023-03-23 On Class Race and Educational Reform provokes new dialogue between Marxists critical race theory scholars and other race inspired educational theorists with the aim of countering racism and class inequalities The book opens with a lead chapter by Howard Ryan a doctoral student with a background in teaching and labor organizing that substantively engages questions of class race and educational reform In response to the opening chapter educational theorists from Germany South Africa the UK and the USA provide insightful and penetrating responses highlighting the differences and similarities in perspectives The responses show how educators can overcome theoretical differences to create international collaborations and educational campaigns of solidarity that counter the treacherous impact of racism and class inequalities in the classroom and beyond The book includes a Foreword by Stephen Brookfield University of St Thomas USA and an Afterword by Cheryl Matias University of Kentucky USA Corporate Governance in Namibia Miriam Dikuua,Janey Wyk,Tia Chata,Warren Maroun,Asheer Jaywant Ram,2024-07-01 This book will include a review of the research dealing with the drivers and consequences of Namibia s corporate governance The focus will be on Namibian specific research but this will probably be complemented with international references The Swedish-American Historical Quarterly ,2009 Equality, Education, and Human Rights in the United States Mike Cole,2022-10-12 This book offers an uncompromising and rigorous analysis of education and human rights by examining issues related to gender race sexuality disability and social class Written as a companion to the very successful U K version this volume reflects the economic political social and cultural changes in educational and political policy and practice in the United States Offering a comprehensive look at these areas this book is an essential resource across a wide range of disciplines and for all those interested in education social policy and equality
