Transnational Crimes in the Americas Marshall B. Lloyd, 2018-10-30 Transnational Crimes in the Americas addresses contemporary issues with respect to public institutions that are stakeholders in the fight against globalization of crime. Regional public organizations with a primary focus on the Americas constitute a framework for understanding the need for an institutional response within the Western Hemisphere. While other authors have addressed the growth of organized crime, no one has explained institutional developments in the struggle against transnational crimes. Transnational Crimes in the Americas highlights existing organizations emphasizing a regional response to transnational crimes, suggestions for a permanent criminal court in the Americas, and an appraisal of the current state of institutional developments in the region.
