Nomads and Nation-Building in the Western Sahara Konstantina Isidoros, 2018-03-30 Fabled for more than three thousand years as fierce warrior nomads and cameleers dominating the western Trans Saharan caravan trade today the Sahrawi are admired as soldier statesmen and refugee diplomats This is a proud nomadic people uniquely championing human rights and international law for self determination of their ancient heartlands the western Sahara Desert in North Africa Konstantina Isidoros provides a rich ethnographic portrait of this unique desert society s life in one of Earth s most extreme ecosystems Her extensive anthropological research conducted over nine years illuminates an Arab Berber Muslim society in which men wear full face veils and are matrifocused toward women who are the property holders of tent households forming powerful matrilineal coalitions Isidoros offers new analytical insights on gender relations strategic tribe to state symbiosis and the tactical formation of tent cities The book sheds light on the indigenous principles of social organisation the centrality of women male veiling and milk kinship bringing positive feminist perspectives on how the Sahrawi have innovatively reconfigured their tribal nomadic pastoral society into globalising citizen nomads constructing their nascent nation state This is essential reading for those interested in anthropology politics war and nationalism gender relations postcolonialism international development humanitarian regimes refugee studies and the experience of nomadic communities

Between Ideology and Politics Taghreed Alsabeh, 2024-10-31 This study presents a comparative case study approach to analyzing the foreign policies of ruling Islamist parties in Egypt Morocco and Tunisia The book investigates whether democratically elected ruling Islamist parties apply their ideology to foreign policy and how their foreign policy approaches differ to that of non Islamist parties Taghreed Alsabeh provides in depth analysis of the Freedom and Justice Party FJP in Egypt the Justice and Development Party PJD in Morocco and the Ennahda Party in Tunisia over a period of twelve years and compares their foreign policy approaches and outcomes to those of their own internal non Islamist counterparts What emerges is a detailed picture of each country s foreign policy trajectories through successive governments both Islamist and non Islamist rule and clear sites of commonality as well as divergence Alsabeh demonstrates that ultimately Islamist parties foreign policies have been ideologically constrained to a large degree by national contexts such as limited time in power limited control of the government and their relationships with other domestic political actors

The Illusion of Eternal Religious Law Joseph The Monotheist, 2024-09-22 This book is the third in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur anic revelation published concurrently with the first and second volumes It continues on the work presented in the first two volumes of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur anic revelation The proposed interpretation of the Qur anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues inclusiveness the sources of religious knowledge and the composition of any acceptable Qur'anic based interpretation of religion Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively In this book the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation on law is addressed This position will prove to be of special significance particularly in the context of modernity and the modern state Furthermore Islamic law and its relationship to the religion of Islam is explored The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation does not see religion to be the source of law but rather it sees religion to be a source of ethics It sees that any acceptable interpretation of religion that is based on revealed scripture should have no law component It rejects religious law altogether and calls for the implementation of secular law In consequence the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation would be redefining the role of religion and its domain of operation What Islam is the book talking about Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows Are all of the commands in the Qur'an of eternal applicability What is Islamic law commonly referred to as Shari'a Why study Islamic law and why is it important to study it Is there only one Islamic law How does Islamic law relate to Islam Why does this book call for comprehensive religious reform and not religious law reform These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series This book is self contained It can be read as part of the series or independently It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an its message and Islamic law Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today those interested to learn about Islamic law what it is and what it is not and those interested in monotheistic religions in general This book will prove to be particularly useful to those seeking to understand the problems in the contemporary interpretations of Islam and consequently how such problems reflect on the Muslim individual and societies in general Keywords Islam Islamic law eternal law revealed scriptures interpretations of scripture theology the Qur'an Quran Koran al Qur'an el Coran Sunna Hadith Shari'a Fiqh monotheism inclusiveness secularism philosophy of law philosophy of religion religious reform religious law reform Arab spring comparative religion philology semantics Rise of Islamic Political Movements and Parties Kirdis Esen Kirdis, 2019-05-09 Although regarded as a single community of Islamists Islamic political movements utilise vastly different means to pursue their goals This book examines why some Islamic movements facing the same socio political structures pursue different political paths while their counterparts in diverse contexts make similar political choices Based on qualitative fieldwork involving personal interviews with Islamic politicians journalists and ideologues conducted both before and after the Arab Spring author Esen KirdiAY draws close comparisons between six Islamic movements in Jordan Morocco and Turkey She analyses how some Islamic movements decide to form a political party to run in elections while their counterparts in the same country reject doing so and instead engage in political activism as a social movement through informal channels More broadly the study demonstrates the role of internal factors ideological priorities and organisational needs in explaining differentiation within Islamic political movements and discusses its effects on democratisation

Foreign Policy in North Africa Irene Fernandez Molina, Miguel Hernando de Larramendi, 2020-12-17 Foreign Policy in North Africa explores how the foreign policies of North African states which occupy a peripheral and subaltern position within the global system have actively responded to the constraints and opportunities stemming from multi level transformations in the 2010s What has been the extent of continuity and change in each country s foreign policy making and behaviour under such conditions Which structural and agential factors explain the variations observed or the lack thereof Building on scholarship on foreign policy in the Global South and the Middle East and North Africa MENA as well as the international impact of the 2011 Arab uprisings case studies on six different countries focus on a specific level of analysis for each These range from the global Tunisia s financial predicaments and foreign debt negotiations through the sub regional Egypt s relationship of necessity with Saudi Arabia Algeria s half hearted policies towards the conflicts in Libya and Mali to the domestic sphere Morocco s power balance between the monarchy and the Islamist led government Libya s extreme state weakness and internal competition among proliferating actors reaching also the deeper non state societal level in the case of Mauritania The volume concludes by examining post 2011 developments in the longstanding Algerian Moroccan rivalry which hinders regional integration in the Maghreb Foreign Policy in North Africa will be of great interest to scholars of North African politics and international relations Middle Eastern and North African studies foreign policy and global international relations The chapters were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of North African Studies
