The Post Office Guide is the official book of reference regarding postal information and post offices throughout the world. It is a wise plan always to keep a copy in the office for use when needed. Two of the services provided by the Post Office are given below:

Business Reply Service. For this service a license must be obtained from the Post Office. By this means a person may receive replies from his customers without them having paid the postage, this being collected from the receiver.

Express Letters. If a letter is marked "Express" and an extra fee is paid. It receives priority and is delivered by special messenger.
