transcend what any one association can accomplish in its own country region or area of specialization Young Children Becoming Curriculum Marg Sellers, 2013-07-31 This book contests a tradition and convention in educational thinking that dichotomises children and curriculum by developing the notion of re conceiving children in curriculum By presenting an innovative research project in which she worked with children to share their understandings of the internationally renowned Te Wh riki curriculum Marg Sellers explores what the curriculum means to children and how it works as demonstrated in games they played In generating different ways for thinking the author draws upon her work with the philosophical imaginaries of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari whose ideas shape both the content and the non linear structure of this book Topics covered include Rhizomes rhizo methodology and rhizoanalysis Plateaus De territorialising lines of flight Dynamic spaces The notion of empowerment This assemblage of Deleuzo Guattarian imaginaries generates ways for thinking differently about children s complex interrelationships with curriculum and opens possibilities for re conceiving both reconceiving and receiving children s understandings within adult conceptions of how curriculum works for young children This book will be of interest to early childhood students scholars and practitioners alike also appealing to those interested in philosophical theoretical and practical understandings of curriculum in general Importing Faith Glyn J.

Ackerley, 2015-10-23 Many twenty first century evangelical charismatics in Britain are looking for a faith that works They want to experience the miraculous in terms of healings and God sent financial provision Many have left the mainstream churches to join independent charismatic churches led by those who are perceived to have special insights into faith and to teach principles that will help believers experience the miraculous But all is not rosy in this promised paradise and when people are not healed or they remain poor they are often told that it is because they did not have enough faith or are too negative This study seeks to discover the origin of the principles that are taught by some charismatic leaders Ackerley identifies them as the same ideas that are taught by the positive confession health wealth and prosperity movement originating in the United States The origins of the ideas are traced back to New Thought metaphysics and its background philosophies of subjective idealism and American pragmatism These principles were imported into the UK through contact between British leaders and those influenced and trained by American word of faith teachers The author seeks to explain the persuasiveness of such teachers through examining case studies He suggests their miracles may well have social and psychological explanations rather than divine origins Ephemeral Bibelots Brad Evans, 2019-09-10

Restoring proto modernist little magazines known as ephemeral bibelots to the scholarly canon Emanating from the cabarets of modernist Paris a short lived vogue spread around the world for avant garde journals known in English as ephemeral bibelots For a time it seemed that all the young bohemians passing through Paris started their own bibelots modeled on Le Chat Noir the esoteric magazine of the famed Montmartre cabaret These journals were recognizable for their decadence campy queerness astounding art nouveau illustrations fin de si cle color schemes innovative typefaces and practiced bohemianism In

Ephemeral Bibelots Brad Evans relays the untold story of this late nineteenth century craze for bibelots dusting off a trove of periodicals largely untouched by digitization In excavating this forgotten archive Evans calls into question the prehistory of modernist little magazines as well as the history of American art and literature at the turn of the twentieth century Considering how artistic movements take shape move and disappear the book is organized around three major themes vogue ephemera and obscurity with authors and artists to match A full color insert reveals a glorious array of bibelot covers This revisionary history of print culture incorporates discussions of pragmatist philosophy and relational aesthetics women writers like Juliet Wilbor Tompkins and Carolyn Wells the graphic artists Will Bradley Louis Rhead and John Sloan the dancer Loie Fuller and twentieth century figures like H L Mencken Amy Lowell and Anita Loos Bringing nineteenth century American literature and culture into conversation with modern art movements from around the world Ephemeral Bibelots provides new ways of thinking about the centrality of various media cultures to the attribution of aesthetic innovation and its staying power

The Death of a Scientist Alexander Vapirev, 2018-09-24 A contemporary and detailed look at the reality behind the PhD degrees and postdoctoral fellowships in academia The book explores some of the most pressing issues and unique challenges currently facing the doctoral and postdoctoral programs both on a local institutional level and on a global one where multiple complex factors influencing and governing the academic environment take place The interrelated nature of these challenges together with discussions over certain historical trends and demographics offer a unique perspective on some often overlooked topics such as academic advisors and mentoring increasing job insecurity career prospects mental issues discrimination and women in science ever growing need for funding increasing pressure for high profile research internationalization of science trends in university management higher education dynamics and government policies backed with references to published research national and international surveys and census data Today most of the PhD programs have been accommodated to the benefit of the university with disregard to any sustainable demand and supply job market strategies contrary to the original ideas behind their inception The result is an over flooded job market and huge underemployment rates among doctorate holders Infused with a narrative of a rich mix of personal experiences observations and impressions all dressed in humor mostly dark sarcasm irony disbelief and often outright criticism this text does not shy away from asking uncomfortable questions and even attempts to provide answers to some of them At the same time it also offers practical advice for those considering and those who already have dared to tread the PhD path

Preparing to Teach Writing James D. Williams, 2014-02-05 Preparing to Teach Writing Fourth Edition is a comprehensive survey of theories research and methods associated with teaching composition successfully at the middle secondary and college levels Research and theory are examined with the aim of informing teaching Practicing and prospective writing teachers need the information and strategies this text provides to be effective and well prepared for the many challenges they will face in the classroom Features Current combines discussions and references to foundational studies that helped define the field of rhetoric and composition with updated research theories and applications Research based thorough examination of relevant research in education literacy cognition linguistics and grammar Steadfast adherence to best practices based on how students learn and on how to provide the most effective writing instruction A Companion Website provides sample assignments and student papers that can be analyzed using the research and theory presented in the text Peacebuilding Legacy Sukanya Podder,2022-08-08 A fundamental challenge plagues the global peacebuilding community How can technocratic approaches to peacebuilding that are rooted in short term project based execution of activities further the longer term transformative outcomes like altering young people s attitudes and beliefs about peace and violence In response to this global challenge in Peacebuilding Legacy Sukanya Podder analyzes the long term effects of peacebuilding programmes involving children and young people Podder unpacks the concept of peacebuilding legacy through the lens of time transformation and intergenerational peace Podder also develops unique qualitative cues for measuring legacy in terms of the institutional normative and organizational logics If norms resonate strongly with the local context they are likely to encourage strong retention and meaningful adoption over time Successful institutionalization of project models through planned handover to successor national organizations or government departments holds the key to stronger local ownership Organizational learning and reflection can support this process through a more strategic approach to programming and through post exit studies Regarding attitude change Podder found that the media and peace education projects that targeted individuals ingrained beliefs and values but overlooked the role of group social norms had only limited persuasive effects To shift the values practices norms and beliefs of the younger generation the mindset of the older generation must also be targeted Changes in the legal political economic and other social institutions are critical for long term and meaningful transformation This requires adopting an ecological model of peace From Polarisation to Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills,Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes,2021-08-05 This book explores the concept of multi species relationships and suggests critical systemic pathways to protect shared habitats This book discusses how the eradication of species as a result of rapid urbanisation places humanity at risk This book demonstrates how narrow anthropocentrism has focused on the rights of human beings at the expense of other species and the environment This book explores a priori norms and a posteriori measures and indicators to include and protect multiple species This book aims to strengthen institutional capacity and powers to address and extend the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda by drawing on local wisdom but also the need to implement laws to prevent ecocide This book highlights that our fragile interdependence requires a recognition of our hybridity and interconnectedness within the web of life and suggests ways to reframe policy within and beyond the nation state to support living systems of which we are a strand Ethics, Law and Natural Hazards Lauren Traczykowski,2021-03-08 This book argues that the international community has a moral duty to intervene on behalf of a population affected by a natural hazard when their government is either unable or unwilling to provide basic life saving assistance The work draws on law international relations theory and political philosophy to articulate that non response to a natural hazard is unethical In providing policy suggestions the author articulates what should happen based on an ethical analysis Readers will thus gain an ethical lens with which to view intervention in the aftermath of a natural hazard The book encourages readers to consider the nuances of arguments from various disciplines about whether or not intervention is appropriate Whilst arguing throughout that an intervention policy in response to natural hazards should be developed by the international community the study also accounts for why intervention should only be used in very limited situations This interdisciplinary approach makes the book essential reading for researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of international law humanitarian studies human rights international relations and political science Faith, folk and the far right Dominic Alessio, Robert J. Wallis, 2025-06-24 This book offers the first examination of extremist Heathenry and occultism in the UK and how anti racist Heathens act to counter this discourse It explores the spectrum of Heathen practice today and the historical origins of racist Heathenry in nineteenth century Germanic romanticism and twentieth century folkish nationalism Treating each of the three main extremist Heathen organisations the book extends the analysis to the neo Nazi occult organization the Order of the Nine Angles O9A and the wider racist Heathen cultural scene in Black Metal and Dark Folk music The authors balance this with discussion of how inclusivist Heathens are countering this discourse from visible protests at far right rallies to inter faith forums and an active presence on social media platforms The book makes an important contribution to the intersecting fields of new religious movements nationalist history and racist politics Music and the Making of Modern Japan Margaret Mehl, 2024-05-29 Japan was the first non Western nation to compete with the Western powers at their own game The country's rise to a major player on the stage of Western music has been equally spectacular The connection between these two developments however has never been explored How did making music make Japan modern How did Japan make music that originated in Europe its own And what happened to Japan's traditional music in the process Music and the Making of Modern Japan answers these questions Discussing musical modernization in the context of globalization and nation building Margaret Mehl argues that far from being a side show music was part of the action on centre stage Making music became an important vehicle for empowering the people of Japan to join in the shaping of the modern world In only fifty years from the 1870s to the early 1920s Japanese people laid the foundations for the country's post war rise as a musical as well as an economic power Meanwhile new types of popular song fuelled by the growing global record industry successfully blended inspiration from the West with musical characteristics perceived as Japanese Music and the Making of Modern Japan represents a fresh contribution to historical research on making music as a major cultural social and political force Insights in teacher education: 2022 Stefinee Pinnegar, Ramona Maile Cutri, 2024-04-22 Knowledge, Policy and Practice in Teacher Education Maria Teresa Tatto, Ian Menter, 2019-02-21 Knowledge Policy and Practice in Teacher Education reviews the evolution of education policy on initial teacher education as an indicator of the knowledge that is considered important for nation building It also looks at research on approaches and structures to initial teacher learning as an indication of the intellectual and moral direction to which schooling must aspire Contributors look at these dynamics across a range of societies including Australia the Czech Republic England Finland Hong Kong Israel Italy Japan South Korea Mexico Russia and the USA Using a review of the literature approach within a comparative framework the book seeks to answer the following questions for each country What has been the evolution of different approaches to learning to teach in each setting and what factors have influenced change over the years What are the underlying theories that characterize past and current thinking about the knowledge skills and dispositions needed by teachers and what evidence is used to support these theories What does a review on the state of the knowledge about teacher education over the past 30 years reveal about the evolution of the research and knowledge traditions that have supported current and past innovations in teacher education Maria Teresa Tatto and Ian Menter explore international variability in different conceptions of knowledge in the context of learning to teach and explore the way in which national and international influences interact in the developing trajectories of teacher education policy and practice considering what knowledge is considered important for teachers to have
