Domestic Violence and the Islamic Tradition Ayesha S. Chaudhry, 2013-12-19 Modern scholars of most major religious traditions who seek gender egalitarian interpretations of their scriptural texts confront a common dilemma how can they produce interpretations that are at once egalitarian and authoritative within traditions that are deeply patriarchal This book examines the challenges and resources that the Islamic tradition offers to Muslim scholars who seek to address this dilemma This is achieved through extensive study of the intellectual history of a Qur'anic verse that has become especially contentious in the modern period Chapter 4 Verse 34 Q 4 34 which can be read to permit the physical disciplining of disobedient wives at the hands of their husbands Though this verse has been used by historical and contemporary Muslim scholars in multiple ways to justify the right of husbands to physically discipline their wives progressive and reformist Muslim scholars and activists offer alternative and non violent readings of the verse The diverse and divergent interpretations of Q 4 34 showcases the pivotal role of the reader in shaping the meaning and implications of scriptural texts This book investigates the sophisticated and creative interpretive approaches to Q 4 34 tracing the intellectual history of Muslim scholarship on this verse from the ninth century to the present day Ayesha S Chaudhry examines the spirited and diverse and at times contradictory readings of this verse to reveal how Muslims relate to their inherited tradition and the Qur'anic text

Feminism, Tradition and Change in Contemporary Islam Shehnaz Haqqani, 2024-10-17 The Islamic tradition has always been flexible changing over time and constantly adapting to the different societies Muslims find themselves in Few Muslims today would abide by the fatwa against the printing press under the Ottomans Moreover although Islamic law legislates for slavery and child marriage only a vanishing minority of Muslims consider these practices acceptable today and some will even argue that Islam never permitted them Yet some issues like the prohibition on female led prayer and female interfaith marriage seem curiously impervious to change Why is that Through a mixture of interviews with ordinary Muslims in Texas and critical analysis of contemporary and historical scholarship Shehnaz Haqqani demonstrates the gendered dimensions of change and negotiation in Islamic tradition She argues that a reliance on a mostly male scholarly consensus means that the tradition preserves male privilege at the expense of justice for Muslim women The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender Justine Howe, 2020-11-09 Given the intense political scrutiny of Islam and Muslims which often centres on gendered concerns The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender is an outstanding reference source to key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject Comprising over 30 chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into seven parts Foundational texts in historical and contemporary contexts Sex sexuality and gender difference Gendered piety and authority Political and religious displacements Negotiating law ethics and normativity Vulnerability care and violence in Muslim families Representation commodification and popular culture These sections examine key debates and problems including feminist and queer approaches to the Qur'an hadith Islamic law and ethics

The Most Controversial Qur'anic Verse John Andrew Morrow, 2020-07-07 A fourteen centuries old consensus by Islamic religious authorities has upheld the belief that God has granted husbands the right to beat their wives Previously the only element up for debate was the degree of severity the instrument of the beating and the limit to the damage allowed This startling assertion which shocks human sensibilities is confirmed by hundreds of Qur'anic commentaries and works of Islamic jurisprudence authored over the course of the past millennia and a half In this pivotal courageous and timely analysis which works diligently and minutely to separate truth from falsehood right from wrong the moral from the immoral and the ethical from the unethical Dr John Andrew Morrow provides an exhaustive study of the second part of the Qur'anic text 4:34 dispelling the belief that Islam allows domestic violence Like Titan who bears the weight of the heavens upon his shoulders Morrow takes on the entire corpora of Islamic Tradition Along the way the author delicately and defiantly dispels misogynistic misinterpretations of the Word of God while slashing and burning the sexist sayings that were attributed to the Prophet Muhammad In so doing he may well save Islam from those traditionalists and misogynists who claim to speak in God's name

An Echo of Silence Kameel Ahmady, 2021, ۰۰۰۰۰۰ ۰۰۰۰۰۰ An Echo of Silence A Comprehensive Research Study on Early Child Marriage ECM in Iran Kameel Ahmady Whilst working on the issue of female genital mutilation in Iran In the Name of Tradition in this book Kameel Ahmady also brought a focus to the early marriage of children and high rates of this harmful phenomenon in Iran He conducted a two year study on child marriage in the seven provinces of Khorasan Razavi East

Azerbaijan Khuzestan Sistan and Baluchistan West Azerbaijan Hormozgan and Isfahan drawing on official country statistics The results of this research have been published in Farsi Kurdish and English languages According to the religious structure of Iran maturity for girls begins with the first monthly menstruation considered as the threshold of transition from childhood to adulthood which happens around age of 9 This physical and biological threshold means being able to marry regardless of the actual age and ability to govern your marital life Although early marriage applies to both young girls and boys in fact the bitter reality of the society indicates that the consequences and effects of the phenomenon of child marriage on girls are far more serious and dangerous Undoubtedly social investment in girls expanding their social and economic capital and ensuring their access to education and health services is a clear driver towards gender equality to provide for stronger communities but child marriage does the contrary A lack of independent and credible studies on child marriage in Iran means there is little information and data but according to the legal adviser of the Iranian Judiciary the official and state statistics suggest that between 500 to 600 thousand children per year Iran are getting married and these are only the statistics for marriages that officially registered without including those outside the formal marriage process Now there are around 14 000 child widows in the country and according to estimates from the United Nations 17 percent of all marriages in Iran are under the age of 18 Further some men who have more than one spouse in Iran do not register their child marriages and hide them This comprehensive research first attempts to analyse the prevalence of child marriage in Iran with an emphasis on socio cultural factors that reflect the profound and deep rooted inequalities which have contributed to the persistence of child marriage in Iran The scientific reason for doing this research is to explain the evidence and prevalence of this traumatic practice in Iran and to assist government decision makers in focusing on the immediate protection of these children s human rights This book as an effort to expose and deepen understandings of the issue of child marriage in Iran has attracted the attention of civil activists government policymakers and some parliamentary representatives and MPs It has provided the background to proposals for raising the minimum age for child marriage amending Article 1041 of the Civil Code This proposal was approved by the House of Representatives in an emergency and with a majority of votes but unanimously rejected by the Majlis Legal and Judicial Commission As the only fieldwork study these research findings were predicated on producing civil society advocacy and the need for parliament to amend the law In the community level the research has raised a wave of public awareness leading to a serious civil society demand for a ban on child marriage and raising the age of marriage from 13 to 16 for girls and from 15 to 18 for boys early_child_marriage child_marriage_in_Islam age_of_marriage_in_Iran cohabitation_in_Iran white_marriage white_marriage_in_Iran female_gentle_mutilation_or_cutting female_gentle_mutilation_in_iran female_gentle_cutting_in_iran FGM_in_Iran Human_rights_in_Iran feminization_and_poverty_in_Iran divorce_rates_in_Iran divorce_laws_in_Iran marriage_laws_in_Iran virginity_in_Iran 2009 Lectures Ron Johnston,2011-06-30 This volume contains 16 lectures delivered at the British Academy in 2008 10 From romantic love in sub
