Probing the Unknown Stephen Tchudi,1990 New Formulas for America's Workforce ,2003 The Molecular Vision of Life Lily E. Kay,1993 This fascinating study examines the rise of American molecular biology to disciplinary dominance focusing on the period between 1930 and the elucidation of DNA structure in the mid 1950s Research undertaken during this period with its focus on genetic structure and function endowed scientists with then unprecedented power over life By viewing the new biology as both a scientific and cultural enterprise Lily E Kay shows that the growth of molecular biology was a result of systematic efforts by key scientists and their sponsors to direct the development of biological research toward a shared vision of science and society She analyzes the motivations and mechanisms empowering this vision by focusing on two key institutions Caltech and its sponsor the Rockefeller Foundation Her study explores a number of vital sometimes controversial topics among them the role of private power centers in shaping scientific agenda and the political dimensions of pure research It also advances a sobering argument the cognitive and social groundwork for genetic engineering and human genome projects was laid by the American architects of molecular biology during these early decades of the project This book will be of interest to molecular biologists historians sociologists and the general reader alike
