

Hi Gloria,

I hope you're well. I am thrilled to apply for the UX Writer position at the Google Headquarters in London. With over 15 years of experience in content creation and consumer usability optimisation in the technology industry, I am confident in my ability to drive B2B and B2C engagement while implementing effective content strategies.

In my current role at Impact Sound, I lead language strategy and brand standard initiatives, improving marketability and instruction manual production. My peer-evaluation and proofreading initiative reduced errors by 31%, and a revised company tone and language project exceeded the target of improving customer engagement by 25%. Previously, at ClaroTech, I collaborated with multidisciplinary teams to optimise website engagement and redesigning the company style guide led to a significant 31% increase in click-through rates within the month.

Certified in Google Analytics and with a Bachelor's in English Language and Marketing, I am adept at balancing design and business objectives with my specialist industry knowledge, and I would love to discuss this with you further in an interview.

Best Regards,

Dom Baker
