reflects the basic problem posed by the text the characters are playacting using words and body language to manipulate other people while at the same time they watch themselves act In a word it is a comedy of bad faith Presenting characters as if in a play is not without consequences for the reader In many novels the author narrator is a primary source of information concerning the people that inhabit the pages we read Since plays are meant to be experienced in performance rather than in silent reading that information is communicated by other means stage directions the production and mostly the actors who bring the characters to life with a stamp of individuality Here in The Folded Lie reading is a matter of listening to the voice of the characters as it is embodied in the words they use and the rhythm of their utterances It
